Survey of Incomes Ordered
By Woods as Landlord Check

Findings Will Determine Increases to Be Granted
Under New Statute; Says Present Law Is Stronger Than Its Predecessor

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Housing Expediter T. H. Woods today ordered a survey of landlord incomes. The findings will determine what rent increases are to be granted under the new control law.

Announcing the order in a statement, Woods declared the 15-month extension is a "considerable strengthening" of the previous law and does not mean "a general rent increase for all tenants."

The new law does require that rent ceilings allow landlords a "fair operating income." The survey is to obtain information for carrying out that part of the law.

Shortly after Woods announced his plans, President Truman took another crack at what he called the real estate lobby.

The rent ceiling bill he signed yesterday must be a good one, the President said, in view of the criticism of it in a telegram he has received.

Under questioning at his news conference, Mr. Truman said the telegram came from the National Association of Real Estate Boards. He wasn't releasing the telegram; himself, he said, but the sender, a Mr. Nelson, was at liberty to do so.

With a smile, he described the telegram as a long winded one from the real estate lobby and said it criticized the bill very sharply.

There was a trace of sarcasm in his voice as he said it must be a good bill.

Woods said a new regulation will be issued governing landlords under the "fair income" clause after the survey is completed. Meantime, rent offices will continue to handle landlord petitions for increases on grounds of hardship.

A spokesman said Woods within the next week or so will also remove the ceiling in about 100 of the 600 rent areas of the country. Woods agreed to do that if Congress gave him power to restore ceiling in case of need.

The idea is that in these 100 or so areas there is now enough housing so that rent ceilings are not necessary.

Housing officials said the survey of landlord incomes probably will require several weeks.

Some features of the new act would be to strengthen the rent ceiling system were described by Woods as "either of minor importance or they simply represent a new but not necessarily weaker way of dealing with certain problems."

This, he said, applies to the home-rule decontrol provisions.

In this Woods concurred with President Truman. In signing the extension act late yesterday, the President issued a statement calling it "an effective" law, well equipped with enforcement teeth, and a "crushing defeat for the real estate lobby."

Woodland Is Destroyed

An estimated 15 to 20 acres of woodland on the Lomontville-Spittway road was destroyed by a severe forest fire which raged there Wednesday. The fire was brought under control about 3:30 p. m. by volunteer firemen and others who responded to a call for aid broadcast at noon Wednesday through the sheriff's office. No buildings or other structures were in the damaged area.

Grocer Finds One Youth
Wasn't Kidding as Others Did

Miamisburg, O., March 31 (AP)—Neighborhood youngsters have been going into Wilbur Karpur's grocery here and playing a "hold-up" game with the 65-year-old man.

So, when a youth entered the store yesterday, a guff in hand and his face covered with a handkerchief, Karpur only laughed when he was ordered to get behind the counter.

The intruder pocketed his gun and struck Karpur on the head with a homemade blackjack, then fled as the grocer threw a pop bottle at him.

It took six stitches to close the wound in Karpur's head. He isn't playing the "hold-up" game any more.

Bulk of Dewey
Program Passes
State Legislature

Democrats Follow Party
Line, Call Session
Dismal Failure,
Go Home

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—New York's Legislature adjourned its 1949 session early today after enacting the bulk of Governor Dewey's program but slapping down a number of his major proposals.

The lawmakers quit at 12:38 a. m. on a note of harmony in contrast to bitter "family fights" that resulted in a successful Republican revolt against Dewey's tax program and other administrative measures.

Although Democratic minority leaders claimed the record of the 172nd session was a "dismal failure," G. O. P. legislative chiefs hailed it as one of the most constructive in recent history.

In the closing hours, Dewey scored a major victory but also suffered a setback.

His hotly-debated sickness-disability insurance program won approval on a strict party vote. It sets up a state-administered system of benefit payments to compensate workers for loss of wages caused by illness or injury not connected with their work.

However, Dewey's proposal for one-man, instead of three-man, control of administration of the State Civil Service Department was defeated.

Less than an hour before adjournment, Benjamin P. Feinberg resigned from the Senate to accept appointment as chairman of the Public Service Commission and Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston was chosen to succeed him as majority leader.

Wicks won the leadership over Senator Walter J. Mahoney of Buffalo, a leader of the "tax revolt."

Wicks' victory came on the fourth ballot during an hour-long conference of Senate Republicans.

Wicks moved immediately to heal a now threatened breach in G. O. P. ranks by naming Mahoney his successor as chairman of the powerful Senate finance committee.

Also in the closing hours, the Legislature passed:

1. A measure extending New York's statewide standard residential rent control law and the New York city business and commercial rent control laws for another year into the middle of 1950.

2. A Dewey program bill, riddled by amendments, to establish a permissive state-wide building code.

3. A compromise plan for distribution of an extra $40,000,000 in state aid for public schools.

The window of the tumultuous 13-week session, longest in seven years, drew a parting salvo from the Democratic floor leaders, Senator Elmer F. Quinn and Assemblyman Irwin Steingut.

In a joint statement, they summed up the minority party's opinion of the session this way:

"Income taxes are up 50 per cent, the surplus has vanished, the education crisis mounts, the unemployment, insurance fund is raided for another $127,000,000, the utilities have held off public development of water power of the St. Lawrence river, labor is being taxed $100,000,000 for a false sickness and disability plan, the farmers and consumers are given a run around, and local taxpayers are informed that they will have to continue to shift for themselves as best they can while the state imposes a billion dollar tax load for its own requirements."

"This," Steingut and Quinn concluded, "is certainly a record of dismal failure."

Greene Job Begins

Lane Construction Goes to Work North of Saugerties

Surveys in preparation for the start of grading and structural work on the Catskill Thruway from Saugerties to Kingston, have been completed and the work is expected "to get under way this season," James S. Bixby, district engineer of the state public works department said today.

Workmen of the Lane Construction Co., started today on construction of three and a half miles of the thruway from Saugerties to the Greene county line, and the same company has the contract for another three and a half miles further into Greene county.

State engineers completed work within the past week at Mt. Marion on the final survey for the grading and structural project from Saugerties to Kingston and the plans are expected to be forwarded for bidding purposes within the next 30 days.

An interchange is to be constructed near Route 212 in Saugerties, and the route from there to Kingston entails the building of bridges and other structural work along with the general grading.

Will Stop Near Route 28

The grading project from Route 212 to Kingston will be stopped about a half mile short of joining Route 28, under present plans, Bixby said, for certain technical reasons.

The remaining half mile will probably be completed when the paving contract is let.

The Lane Construction Co., meanwhile, is expected to continue its work from Route 212 northward for approximately seven miles until that entire section of the route is completed under terms of the two separate contracts.

The Thruway projects along with that now in progress near Ellenville will provide work for many area laborers and skilled workmen, it was said today.

Nearly 10 miles of road will be constructed from Ellenville to Woodbourne, and at least 10 miles more of grading and construction work will be under way this summer if the Saugerties-Kingston section of the thruway contract is approved as planned.

Protest on Horseback

Penzance, England, March 31 (AP)—Six men and two mares today to protest against the slaughter of horses in meat-rations Britain. They left London, southern tip of England in Cornwall, for John O'Groats in the northern tip of Scotland. F. A. H. Maitland, former cavalry officer, is leading the party. He said its object is to "popularize the horse and draw the public attention to the present serious traffic in horseflesh."

He said in one own nearly 100 horses are slaughtered monthly. One member of the group is Sally Foot, sister of Michael Foot, Labor member of Parliament.

Measure Approved

Also in the closing hours, the Legislature passed:

1. A measure extending New York's statewide standard residential rent control law and the New York city business and commercial rent control laws for another year into the middle of 1950.

2. A Dewey program bill, riddled by amendments, to establish a permissive state-wide building code.

Truman Still Wants
Higher Taxes and Inflation Program

President Says His Request for Controls Checked
Price Increases
in Nation

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman declared today that he still wants his anti-inflation program and higher taxes.

He spoke of the recent drop in prices as only a temporary let up in inflation pressure.

At the same time, he said his request for stand-by price controls has been a factor in checking price rises.

"This administration program has not been shelved, Mr. Truman asserted, certainly not on the basis of any consultation with him."

As for taxes, the President said a federal deficit would be much more dangerous to the country's economic health than a tax increase.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that he does not agree with Senator George (D-Cal.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, that a tax increase at this time might bring about a depression.

By these remarks, Mr. Truman was prodding Congress indirectly, once again to follow his advice and increase taxes by $4,000,000,000.

George vs. Truman

George's view is that taking that much money out of the hands of the people would mean less spending for consumer goods and so contribute to a slackening of business.

What Mr. Truman argues is that it would be worse for the government to spend more than it takes in through taxes, creating a deficit in its accounts.

In his messages to Congress last January, Mr. Truman proposed a $4,000,000,000 increase in taxes to come chiefly from corporations.

Sterly Says Fur Piece
Was Taken From His Store

Local and state police action yesterday closed in on what is believed to be a shop-lifting ring of large-scale operations following a tip from a local furrier.

Three women and a man, all colored, were held on second degree larceny charges, after a telephone call to local police headquarters by Frank Sterly, the furrier of 744 Broadway, had set the trap which resulted in their capture.

The four arraigned before City Judge Matthew V. Cahill today were: Rita Wright, 34, of 517 Green avenue, Brooklyn; Gladys Folks, 23, of 453 West 153rd street, New York; Marie Jackson, 27, of 805 St. Nicholas avenue, New York, and Madrick Wallace, 41, of 539 West 150th street, New York.

All waived examination and were held for the grand jury. Bail was to be fixed later.

The Wright woman was arrested by Officers Walter Fitzgerald and Kenneth Stratton in this city through the follow-through cooperation of the furrier, and Wallace, driver of the car in which the group rode, and the other two women were apprehended at the Rip Van Winkle bridge by Trooper Fred Knight of the State Police B.C.I. about an hour after the arrest here.

Alleged loot taken from the car in which the four had been riding, included a stone martin fur piece, which Sterly said was taken from his store.

The furrier said he recognized two of the women as former visitors to his store last fall and winter.

Capt. William T. Roedell received the telephone call at headquarters from Sterly and through Sgt. Lemuel F. Howard dispatched a patrol car to the Broadway store, and a teletype message was sent to area police stations.

Three Asked for Jacket

The furrier said the three women came into his store and said they were interested in buying a fur jacket. He told them he had none and, he said, they asked to see a fur scarf. One of them continued talking to him as the other two "looked around," he reported.

One of them, he said, he recognized immediately, as the woman who had been in his store last fall and the other he recognized later as a former visitor.

The furrier called to his wife after his suspicion was aroused, and she remained in the store

Garages

Minneapolis, March 31 (AP)—Two 17-year-olds couldn't raise the money to go to shows so they "unloaded" their own entertainment here—with matches.

Police and firemen were stumped by 16 garage fires which destroyed or damaged the buildings and a dozen autos in recent weeks.

Yesterday a householder found two youths meddling in his garage. They told officers:

"Yes, sure we set those fires. We couldn't find any odd jobs to get money for the movies. So we just put on our own shows."

They were held to juvenile court while losers totted up the bills.

President Expects Pact Ratification

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman declared today that he is confident the Atlantic Pact will be ratified by the Senate.

He said the defense alliance is absolutely necessary.

The President took this position at a news conference when he was told that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has questioned the advisability of going into the pact. He said he thought the majority of the senators would go along with him.

City's Crime Rate
Is Below Average

FBI Report Says Kingston
Had 175 Total in Six Categories

New York, March 31 (Special)—On the basis of figures gathered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation from police departments in 1,079 cities throughout the country, it is shown that Kingston had a lower crime rate in 1948 than most cities. The data is contained in the FBI's "Uniform Crime Reports," just made public.

In Kingston a total of 175 crimes of all sorts came to the attention of local police. On a comparative rate basis, this amounted to 613 offenses per 100,000, well under the national average of 1,687 per 100,000. It was also below the rate for the other cities in the Middle Atlantic States, which was 908 crimes per 100,000.

The crimes were tabulated by the F.B.I. in six categories. Among Kingston's offenses, larcenies led in number, with 113 reported. The other totals were: burglaries, 21; auto thefts, 35; and assaults, 1. There were no robberies or murders and manslaughter.

The total volume of crime in the county went slightly above the 1947 figures. The increase was 1.3 per cent. Compared with the pre-war period of 1938-41, crime remained at a high level, the report shows, reaching a peak in some categories in 1948. Only manslaughter and auto thefts declined below the pre-war point.

Producers Remove Support,
Oscars May Be Thing of Past

Hollywood, March 31 (AP)—Chances increased today that the coveted Academy Award "Oscars," symbols of excel once in the motion picture art, soon will become a collector's item.

Five top movie producers have come out flatly with an announcement they are stopping their contributions to the awards.

Robert Montgomery, secretary of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences says without their support, the Oscars are a thing of the past.

The producers, in a joint statement from New York, indicated they are withdrawing financial aid to the awards to remove "any suspicion of company influence."

Montgomery declared last night:

"The academy is not in a financial position to sponsor the awards itself. And since the film companies benefit by the Oscars, it seems only fair that they should help contribute to the presentation ceremony."

Montgomery pointed out that the companies exploit to the limit any academy award won by their pictures.

The producers stated they will continue "moral support" of awards in general, if based on "democratic selection."

The statement was signed by Nicholas M. Schenck of Loews (R.I.C.M.), Barney Balaban of Paramount, Spyros R. Skouras of 20th-Century-Fox, Maj. Albert Warner of Warner Brothers and Ned Depinet of R.K.O.

"I don't know what they are talking about," Montgomery said.

Seven Villages Hit by Tornadoes; Three Persons Die

Canton, Okla., March 31 (AP)—The terror that tornadoes brought to seven Oklahoma communities gave way today to the dreary and heartbreaking job of picking up the pieces and starting over.

There were three deaths to learn to forget, and more than a dozen victims are still in hospitals with serious injuries.

The twisters, probably just two of them, churned from Oklahoma to Kansas along the diagonal face of a stationary cold front.

Reading from southwest to northeast, the first one hit Canton, Longdale, Homestead and Isabella. The second tornado, headed the same way but farther north, passed close to Enid and Medford and raked Blackwell on route to Kansas. Each did up to a half a million dollars damage.

The first was the worst. It tore part of Canton down and killed Charles Stowers, 32, and Mrs. C. W. Godfrey, about 80. Then it hopped seven miles to Longdale—and killed 12-year-old Larry Arnold. It passed on to rip open homes and buildings in the villages of Homestead and Isabella.

The second twister hit only glancing blows. It struck rural buildings near Medford, partly destroyed an airport near Enid, and did its worst damage at Blackwell, injuring half-a-dozen, and tearing down a school and several homes.

It apparently crossed the line into Kansas, and injured three persons on farms near Winfield.

As with all tornadoes, there was freak damage. A brick church was razed to the ground, but across the alley a flimsy frame garage stood untouched.

A 6-month-old baby girl was snatched from her home and set down gently in a field several hundred feet away.

One house was unmarked outside—but the inside was crammed with debris carried through the windows by the blast.

Although tornado winds approached 400 miles per hour—nature's most concentrated fury—their peculiar destruction comes from the extreme low pressure, a near vacuum that apparently lies in the vortex.

Surrounded by this sudden vacuum, a houseful of air burst outward like a bomb blast, scattering the timbers far and wide. The house of Charles Stowers was taken apart almost nail by nail and spread over ten acres.

Corn Cobs

Corn cobs, ground and sieved to a fineness comparable to corn meal, can be used instead of corn meal in making abrasive soaps, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

Permanent Home

Natives of Bikini, who moved to permit the bomb test, have finally found a permanent home on the island of Kili, 500 miles southwest of Bikini.

Russian Brown Bears Headline Vaudeville Show

A trio of Russian brown bears, including Tosja, whose career includes several movie appearances and a singing act for television, will go through their paces on the stage of the Broadway Theatre on Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2, as headliners on the weekly five-act professional vaudeville bill.

Stanley Beebe of Brooklyn is trainer of the trio, and Rosie, a 10-year-old who accompanies Beebe in song, giving out with a coughing high C, is the star of the troupe. The bears dance, tumble, walk tightropes, and wrestle in the same manner that earned them top billing at the recent Sportsmen's Shows in New York, Boston, Albany, Houston and Louisville.

One matinee and two evening performances will be presented on Friday and Saturday in addition to the screen attraction "High Fidelity" with Madeline Carroll. Friday night at 7 o'clock, immediately preceding the first evening show, the fifth in the series of eliminations for the "Mr. Song of 1949" contest will be held, with another four contestants trying for the $1,375 worth of prizes. The contest will be broadcast from the stage.

Also headlining will be "The Madcaps," a pair of comedians who until recently went out on their own, were members of the famed Borah Mineville Harmonica Rascal troupe. The two men start out seriously on the harmonica, but their playing quickly gives away to clowning and musical antics.

Master of ceremonies will be

Randy Crane, young comedian billed as "The Gentleman of Satire." His impersonations include inter-offs on Fred Allen, Gabriel Heatter, Walter Winchell, Jimmy Fidler and Peter Lorre.

Dancing, "hot" piano music, and rhythm will be supplied by Bob and Maxine Gates, performing under the tag-line "Rhythm Is Our Business."

Opening act will be Jack and Sally Taylor, "hand-to-hand" acrobats, who are billed as "Perfection in Balance."

Underground Activity
Warsaw, Poland (AP) — Gen. Franciszek Jozwiak, commander-in-chief of the Polish militia, reported underground bands killed 122 volunteer militiamen in the last three years. Jozwiak said the citizens' volunteer militia reserve, generally known as "Ormo", included among its membership 34,000 peasants and workers. The militiamen killed lost their lives in battling underground bands preceding the national referendum in Poland on June 30, 1946, and the general parliamentary elections on January 19, 1947.

Lack of Complaints

Berlin (AP)—Trying to get the Germans to police their own government is one of the hardest jobs attempted by U.S. military government. If an American doesn't like the way his congressman or alderman votes, or the way a civil servant treats him, he raises a loud public beef. But not a German. Decades of autocratic rule have taught him either to be afraid or resigned. Even now, when he elects his own officials, he takes abuses of power in silence — or at most he grumbles in private.

Briefs Say Russian Has No Immunity From Prosecution

New York, March 31 (AP)—Valentine A. Gubitchev, Russian engineer accused of spying, has no diplomatic immunity from prosecution, according to briefs filed in Federal Court.

But one brief says there are strong arguments on both sides of the question. Gubitchev, suspended United Nations employee, and his alleged accomplice, Miss Judith Coplon, pretty ex-government worker, are scheduled to go on trial tomorrow. The defense is expected to ask an adjournment.

Two briefs were submitted to Judge Simon H. Rifkind yesterday concerning Gubitchev's claim to diplomatic immunity. He maintains the U. S. with diplomatic status, and this had never been formally revoked by the U. S. or waived by Russia.

However, Hamilton said, this argument would carry weight only if the U. S. State Department had made no ruling on the question. The department has said Gubitchev does not have immunity.

Both Donegan and Hamilton concluded that whatever protection Gubitchev enjoyed as a U. N. employee applied only to his official acts.

The Russian had been held in $100,000 bail in the Federal House of Detention since his arrest March 4 at an alleged rendezvous with Miss Coplon. The court named Hamilton to defend him, but Gubitchev said he wanted no lawyer.

Miss Coplon is free in $20,000 bail on the indictment here, and in $10,000 on a charge in Washington, D. C., of removing confidential government information.

Churchill to Give His Views of Hope Rest of Century

Boston, March 31 (AP)—Winston Churchill tells the world tonight what hope he sees for man in this war-marred century.

The 74-year-old statesman, who spurred battling Britain with his call to "blood, sweat, and tears" will speak on "the 20th century, its promise and its realization."

His views are awaited with the urgency that surrounded his "Iron Curtain" speech at Fulton, Mo., March 5, 1946. Then he lamented the lowering of an "Iron Curtain" across Europe, assailed Soviet Russian expansion, and called for the fraternal association of the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States.

Churchill arrived in Boston from New York at 8:15 a. m. Early morning commuters were disappointed when it was announced he would not leave the train until later in the morning.

Tonight in his immediate audience of 13,000 at Boston Garden will be some of the ablest thinkers of the western world: statesmen, educators, scientists and philosophers.

They are gathered for a three-day mid-century survey, initiated by Massachusetts Institute of Technology on the "social implications of scientific progress." The occasion is the inauguration Saturday of Tech's tenth president, Dr. James Rhyne Kilian, Jr.

Over the country and much of the world, the words of Churchill will be carried by radio (NBC, ABC, Mutual in U. S.) and television in one of the largest audiences ever to hear a speaker. He is scheduled to speak at 9 p. m.

Churchill has agreed that his address will be "of some importance." He has said little more about it. M.I.T. estimates it will last one hour and run about 7,000 words.

Will Sail Saturday
The former prime minister will be in Boston until Friday midnight. Then he, his wife and their daughter and son-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Christopher Soames leave for New York. They take the Queen Elizabeth home on Saturday. All during his stay he will be guarded by representatives of Scotland Yard, the U. S. Secret Service and Boston police.

The convocation will bring him again to Boston Garden tomorrow night. Departing slightly from its custom of never conferring honorary degrees, Tech will make Churchill its honorary lecturer, the first this noted scientific school has ever had.

Main speaker Friday night will be Harold E. Stassen, now president of the University of Pennsylvania. He fills the spot on the program to which President Truman had originally been invited. The President accepted, then canceled the engagement because of the press of official business.

In the convocation's discussion panels tomorrow, top thinkers from this country, Britain, France, Belgium, India, Brazil and Mexico will survey the accomplishments and prospects of humanity in the atomic age.

Their talks will scale the range of modern problems—from world production to world peace.

Compton Will Speak

Keynote speaker at the opening general session today is Dr. Karl T. Compton, now chairman of I.T. Corporation and also of the Research and Development Board of the national military establishment. He was for many years president of Tech. Dr. Kilian succeeds him. Compton's topic is "Science at the Mid-Century."

On Saturday, the colorful academic procession of presidents and representatives of universities and colleges in many lands and the inaugural itself will conclude the three-day program. Among the part of to be represented is the ancient University of Padua, founded in 1222.

Merchants Show

a happening of that kind by the conservative buying policies was described as one way of preventing any "bust."

Nevertheless, these policies clearly were a link in the chain leading to factory layoffs when the buying hold-back, starting with the retail consumer, reached to the manufacturer and brought a slowdown in his operations.

Officials said retailers in general put the brakes on inventory building about the middle of 1948. After-Christmas sales proved a sharp disappointment and when subsequent sales lagged, they began selling stocks of goods without fully replacing them.

Government data showed retail stocks of goods were $295,000,000 lower at the end of January than at the end of December. Wholesale and manufacturers inventories moved up slightly as they lagged behind retailers in curtailing inventories.

Tourist Homes Are Asked to Register For More Business

A special invitation is being issued to operators of tourist homes in Kingston and vicinity to contact the Chamber of Commerce regarding the listing of their places in a special folder promoting the city as one with ample accommodations for travelers and visitors.

The committee, directed by A. P. Modjeska, believes that listing hotels and tourist homes is important in that it is one factor in influencing the traveling public to stop in Kingston.

The major portion of the data to be included in the brochure has been assembled and is now as the tourist home operators request a listing it will be ready for publication. When it is off the press, the folder will be distributed to travel agencies recommended by Edward M. Huber, director of the Ulster-Greene vacationland program.

Albert Kurdi, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, reported today that an increasing number of requests are being received about accommodations from a wide area including Canada, Florida and Colorado. "Attracting visitors is an important part of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce program," he said. Every visitor to Kingston and the entire Catskill-Shawangunk vacationland is an asset and should be treated as such, he added.

Corsi Says Children Must Have Work Papers

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—"Nine out of 10" children who worked last year on New York farms were illegally employed, the state industrial commissioner says.

Edward Corsi added in a report yesterday that hundreds of farm workers under 18 years of age lacked state-required working papers.

He warned that children of 14 and 15 must have working papers to be employed legally. The papers can be obtained from local schools.

"Farmers must also remember," he said, "that under the state labor law no one less than 14 years old may be hired for farm work, except on their home farm, in which case the minimum age is 12."

Corsi cited a departmental survey covering 13,817 farm workers. It showed that 2,840 were under 16. "Nine out of 10 were illegally employed—most of them because they had no working papers," the report added.

Food for Thought
What is the difference between a chatterbox and a mirror? One speaks without reflecting, the other reflects without speaking.

Never pose as possessing much wisdom. Then your friends will be crediting you with more than you really have.

The teacher was telling the class about the discovery of the law of gravity. She said: "Sir Isaac Newton was sitting on the ground looking at a tree. An apple fell on his head and from that he discovered gravitation. Just think, wasn't that wonderful?"

"Yes, m, an if he had been getting in school looking at his books, he would have discovered nothing," piped a small boy in the last room.

"Mr. Jones," a man asked his tailor, "how is it you have not called on me for my account?"

"Oh, I never ask a gentleman for money."

"Indeed! How, then, do you get on if he doesn't pay?"

"Why," replied the tailor, hesitating, "after a certain time I conclude he is not a gentleman and then I ask him."

The visitor was examining the class.
"Can any little boy tell me what a fish-net is made of?" he inquired.

"A lot of little holes tied together with strings," smiled the never-failing bright boy.

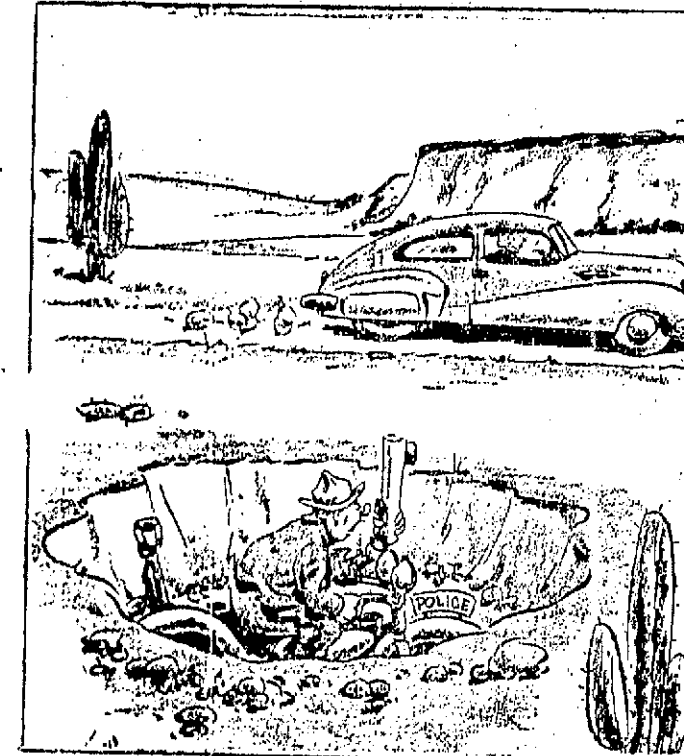

The bare midriff, now extending to male styles, may do for the lithe, clean-cut youth. It is definitely not for his old man, who is all equator.

A man bought a store. In six months it had failed. Later on, meeting the original owner, he halted him and said:
"You know that business you sold me as a going concern?"

"Yes, what of it?"

"Nothing, only it's gone."

collected at 80 per cent of the full rate this year.

"The governor told me he is delighted at my designation as finance committee chairman," Mahoney reported.

Feinberg's resignation, expected for months, came after Dewey made a rare appearance in the Senate chamber to personally nominate the Plattburgh attorney for the F.S.C. chairmanship.

Following a series of laudatory speeches, the Senate unanimously approved the nomination. Feinberg was named to a 10-year term at an annual salary of $17,500 plus $5,000 traveling expense. As chairman he succeeds Milo Malibu, who retired in January.

Dewey said he was impelled by his long personal friendship with Feinberg, and by respect for his abilities, to make the personal nomination.

Tributes to Feinberg

As the governor, J. J. Gov. Joe E. Hanley, Democratic Leader Elmer F. Quinn, Senator Wicks, and Senator Pliny W. Williamson, Westchester, joined in tributes, tears rolled down Feinberg's face.

He later visited the Assembly, where a resolution commending his appointment was adopted unanimously. Feinberg told the Assembly, as he had the Senate, that it was his happiest and saddest day of his life.

The new F.S.C. chairman came to the Senate 17 years ago. He had been Republican leader since 1934. He is 60 years old.

Wicks, 61, is a native of New York city and has been a senator since 1927, ten years longer than Mahoney, who is 41. He owns Thompson's Laundry in Kingston. Feinberg's vacant Senate seat will be filled by a special election next fall in the 38th district. It includes Clinton, Essex, Warren and Washington counties.

Legislature demanded higher bars against employment of Communists in this public school system.

Regents to Keep List

It passed a bill directing the Board of Regents to maintain a list of organizations it finds subversive and to adopt rules making membership in such groups a bar for appointment to or reelection in a position in public schools.

The bill's preamble states: "There is a common report that members of subversive groups, and particularly the Communist Party and certain of its affiliated organizations, have infiltrated into public employment in schools of the state."

The Legislature also passed and sent the governor a bill barring use of state buildings to organizations determined to be subversive by the U. S. attorney general.

In another closing day action, the Legislature approved a proposed constitutional amendment to pay the state's veteran bonus to persons who joined the armed forces after the war. The proposal must be adopted by the 1951 Legislature and then approved by the voters before it can become effective.

The proposal would make bonuses available to New Yorkers who served in the armed forces between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 21, 1946. At present only those who served between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945, are eligible.

The 1949 session produced the highest state budget in history, calling for appropriations of $637,700,000 for the fiscal year beginning Friday.

It was the fiscal program that Dewey's leadership was challenged successfully for the first time since he became governor more than six years ago.

Rebellious Erie and Westchester county Republican legislators forced a $48,000,000 slash in the $168,200,000 tax increase Dewey had proposed.

In addition to outright defeat on the Dewey-backed plan to provide one-man administrative control of the Civil Service Department, opponents forced damaging amendments on two other administration bills before they cleared the Legislature.

These were the state-wide building code proposal and the measure to permit the state to construct transmission lines from the proposed St. Lawrence power project. The latter measure was altered to restrict construction to areas in or near the site of the project.

Among major Dewey-supported legislation which won approval were bills authorizing issuance, on approval of the voters, of $500,000 in state bonds for slum clearance and low rent housing; providing state regulation of non-profit cemeteries; extending veterans' bonus payments to former residents of the state and creating 1,200 additional veterans' scholarships.

Also passed was an administrative measure creating a mental hygiene commission to plan a mental health program to cost millions.

To Talk Problems Of Jewish State At U.J.A. Meeting

DR. ZEV COHEN

At the organization meeting of the 1949 United Jewish Appeal, scheduled Monday at 8 p. m. in R'hai B'rith, 265 Wall street, the featured speaker will be Dr. Zev. Cohen, Israeli author and political expert.

Announcement to this effect was made today by Richard Kalish, 1948 chairman, who issued a cordial invitation to all interested in the appeal to attend the meeting at which officers are to be elected and committees set up to conduct the drive.

Young Dr. Cohen, a native born Israeli or Sabra as they are called, is a graduate of the Hebrew Gymnasium of Herzliyah in Tel Aviv and the School of Law and Economics in Tel Aviv. He received his doctor of laws degree in the University de Droit, Lyons, France. After 2 1/2 Million The United Jewish Appeal will require a minimum of $250,000,000 in 1949 to carry out a many-sided program of emptying the Jewish D.P. camps in Europe, bringing at least 180,000 homeless Jews into Israel and receiving large numbers of refugees in the United States. The United Jewish Appeal must also provide the funds for relief and reconstruction in the Jewish communities of eastern and western Europe, for aid to large sections of the 1,000,000 Jews in North Africa and for housing projects, agricultural settlements and irrigation schemes in Israel to make possible the absorption and integration of hundreds of thousands of immigrants. This vast humanitarian program is carried on by the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the United Service for New Americans.

Search for Crowe Centers in Florida; Act Reconstructed

New York, March 31 (AP)—Search centered around Florida today for a vanished bank executive and $883,660 in missing bank funds.

A chain of letters caused a southward shift in the manhunt for Richard H. Crowe, 41, who disappeared Sunday before the theft of the fortune in cash and bonds was discovered.

Police revealed yesterday that Crowe's wife had received a letter from him postmarked in a southern city. They declined to identify the city.

The F.B.I. also is searching for the good-looking and popular banker, a country club member and civic and charity worker.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said the vault stripping at the National City Bank's branch at 195 Broadway, where Crowe was assistant manager, probably was the biggest theft of its kind in Manhattan's history.

Acting Police Lieut. Grover C. Brown said Crowe walked off with the loot late last Friday, leaving the lock on the vault jammed. It required six hours of work on Monday before the vault could be opened, Brown said.

The loot, police said, apparently was tossed around unguarded in a little leather bag while the accused bank executive spent a typical week-end country-clubbing and putting around his home before disappearing.

Crowe stuffed the money and bonds into a leather bag, police said and they gave this account of the haphazard handling of the fortune during the week-end:

Crowe met his wife Friday evening at a country club near their home on Staten Island, and left the bag in a family car she drove to the club.

After dinner at the club, the couple went home. On Saturday Crowe puttered around his eleven-room house and steno grounds, spending a concrete walk. On Saturday night, the Crowes visited at the home of friends and watched a television show.

Crowe awakened at 7 a. m., Sun-

BANKER SOUGHT

Richard H. Crowe, 41, New York banker, is sought on a charge of grand larceny. Crowe, described as having a "reputation beyond reproach," disappeared one day before $883,660 in cash and negotiable bonds were discovered missing from his bank. (NBA Telephoto) day, complaining of not sleeping well. (He recently had been treated for a nervous breakdown.) At 1 p. m., he left the house in one of the two family cars—now probably currying the money and bonds in two bags—and drove to a Staten Island bar. He held an $11 bill he owed, and had a drink and a meal.

Crowe checked one of the bags in a parking lot and drove home. About 4:30 p. m., he told his wife he was leaving for a few days—(either for Buffalo or Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the wife wasn't sure)—on business for the bank. He left either in a taxicab or one of his cars.

That afternoon, he tried to get his checked bag, but found the parking lot office had closed for the day. He phoned the company at home and was instructed how to open the door. Crowe broke a window in doing it, and phoned back to say he would make good the damage.

That was the last seen of Crowe.

Got Letter, $800

His wife said that on Monday she received a letter from him, postmarked in Manhattan and containing $800 in cash "for the children." The letter from the Kingston city came the next day. It inquired tenderly about her and their three children.

Friends of Crowe received letters with sums of money he owed them.

Mrs. Crowe reported her husband missing on Tuesday, and late that day the theft became public and a widespread alarm was sent out for Crowe on a larceny charge.

The lot on which a revised upward figure was given yesterday by the bank—now is listed at $193,660 in cash, ranging from $1 to $100 bills; $500,000 in negotiable bonds and one $100,000 non-negotiable bond.

When the vault stripping was discovered, the bank notified its insurance company, Lloyd's of London. Police say they were not called in until after Tuesday, and the district attorney's office complained yesterday that it was "irritated" about the way the bank handled the case.

The district attorney's office said that if the bank had notified it immediately, "there undoubtedly would have been an arrest" by this time.

Crowe was reported to have sold a less spacious house on Staten Island and the family's summer home at Lake Mohawk, N. J., in order to purchase an eleven-room beachfront home last year.

Buzzanco House

Damaged by Fire

A second-floor hallway in the three-story frame house at 78 Abeel street, owned by Anthony Buzzanco, was slightly damaged by fire last night.

Firemen were called at 8:55 p. m. for the blaze, which originated in a waste basket. It damaged two small trunks, part of the wall and a door frame. Firemen laid a line of hose, but the blaze was checked through use of water buckets.

Local firemen relayed a call for a grass fire at 2:15 p. m. Wednesday near the Wallkill valley railroad crossing at the end of the Boulevard, to the Bloomington Fire Department.

The fire, which started beyond the city line, burned over an estimated 25 acres extending from near the crossing toward the road leading to Endicott.

Another call at 11:38 p. m. Wednesday was for a fire in an ash can near 17 Second avenue and a call at 8:45 a. m. today was for the removal of a car from a tree at 28 Stuyvesant street. Firemen used 24 feet of ladder to bring the car down.

Four Brooklyn Boys

Are Held by Police

Four teen-aged Brooklyn youths, who said they were en route to Lake Hill, were detained for questioning by local police early this morning.

One of them was picked up at 4:55 a. m. by Officers Louis Sapp and William Hanley on Broadway and the others appeared at headquarters later.

The one brought to headquarters first told police that he had been previously arrested for the theft of an auto, but a message from the New York police later today indicated that none was wanted there on any charges.

The parents were notified through the New York police and they were expected to be returned to Brooklyn this afternoon. One said they had intended to visit his friend in Lake Hill.

Seeks Ambassador

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman indicated today that he is still searching for a new ambassador to Moscow. He was asked at his news conference if Ambassador Caffery, now in Paris, might be moved to Moscow. He said that he has seen Caffery's name mentioned along with others, but he will let reporters know when he has made a decision. He had also seen a story, he said, that the United States may send an ambassador to Spain. He said it was one of those it-is-difficult stories that sometimes appear, and he doesn't know anything about it.

Five Men Killed

Hinton, W. Va., March 31 (AP)—Five men were killed today when a partly built bridge collapsed in a high wind and plunged them 150 feet into Bluestone river. Four others are in a hospital here, two with critical injuries.

New Senator

Dr. Frank P. Graham, a 62-year-old president of the University of North Carolina, has been appointed to the U. S. Senate. Dr. Graham, who helped draft President Truman's controversial civil rights program, repudiated the late Sen. J. Melville Brighten. He will serve until the 1950 general election.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 31 (AP)—Stock prices tipped downward in the market today. Trading actively contracted sharply after the two days of lull business which accompanied news of a cut in margin requirements to 50 per cent cash from 75 per cent.

Losses ranged from fractions to around a point, with most in fractional territory. A handful of issues clung to small gains.

Brokers said that the buying rush of the last two days had given way to more normal demand. In addition, profit taking exerted modest pressure against the price level.

Lowly prices were paid for Santa Fe Southern Railway, Baltimore & Ohio, Texas Co., Richfield Oil, United Air Lines, Eastern Air Lines, Paramount Pictures, Western Union, Kennecott Copper, Phelps Dodge, General Electric, Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, American Woolen, International Paper, U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, and Schenley.

Among the handful advancing were Oliver Corp., Commonwealth Edison, Air Reduction, Allied Chemical, American Tobacco and Pacific Western Oil.

Selected demand developed for railway obligations in the bond market. U. S. Governments held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

In the curb American Gas & Electric advanced coincident with news the company plans to double its electric power output. Lower were Cities Service, Kaiser-Frazer, Pitney-Bowes, Niagara Hudson Power, Fairchild Engine, and Electric Bond & Share.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 31 (AP)—Stock prices tipped downward in the market today.

Trading actively contracted sharply after the two days of lull business which accompanied news of a cut in margin requirements to 50 per cent cash from 75 per cent.

Losses ranged from fractions to around a point, with most in fractional territory. A handful of issues clung to small gains.

Brokers said that the buying rush of the last two days had given way to more normal demand. In addition, profit taking exerted modest pressure against the price level.

Lowly prices were paid for Santa Fe Southern Railway, Baltimore & Ohio, Texas Co., Richfield Oil, United Air Lines, Eastern Air Lines, Paramount Pictures, Western Union, Kennecott Copper, Phelps Dodge, General Electric, Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, American Woolen, International Paper, U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, and Schenley.

Among the handful advancing were Oliver Corp., Commonwealth Edison, Air Reduction, Allied Chemical, American Tobacco and Pacific Western Oil.

Selected demand developed for railway obligations in the bond market. U. S. Governments held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

In the curb American Gas & Electric advanced coincident with news the company plans to double its electric power output. Lower were Cities Service, Kaiser-Frazer, Pitney-Bowes, Niagara Hudson Power, Fairchild Engine, and Electric Bond & Share.

Window Is Damaged

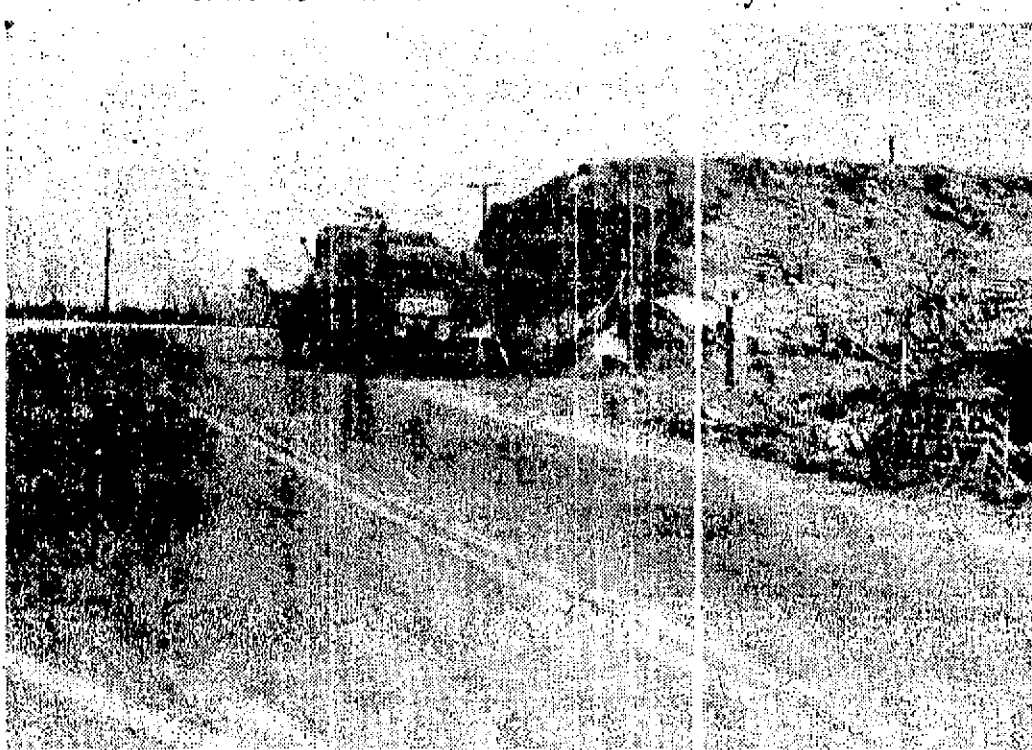

Following a complaint of Mrs. L. Beesmer, 22 Broadway at 8:35 p. m. Wednesday that someone had shot a hole in one of her front windows, Officers Edward Leonard and Thomas McGraw, found that two boys had been having air gun "target practice." Their parents were notified and agreed to pay for damages, the report said.

The band of light in the sky called the Milky Way is caused by the light from millions of stars.

Held for Georgia

Vascelous Manning (Pete) Garrison, 21, of 27 North Main street, Ellenville, was arrested Wednesday afternoon on a charge of abandonment, the sheriff's office reported. He was arrested by authority of an order by the Superior Court of Georgia and is held in the Ulster county jail pending instructions from that state.

The record rainfall in New Orleans was 15.1 inches in 17 hours.

Traffic Hazard Removed on By-Pass

The cliff that obstructs the view of drivers on the SW by-pass across from the Martin and Moran Dodge-Plymouth agency is being removed by the automobile concern which purchased the property some time ago. Jerry Martin, who operates the concern with Frank Moran, said he and his partner were anxious to remove the traffic hazard before the steady flow of summer tourists begins to travel over the road. The leveled land may become a used car lot for the present, he advised, and may be the site of a storehouse later, with a larger repair shop than the one now in use. (Freeman Photo) while he went to the store next door and telephoned police headquarters. The officers then apprehended the woman and brought her to headquarters. This was shortly after 5 p. m.

Capt. Roedel said he learned from the woman that the other two women were riding in an auto driven by a man and this information was in the message which assisted Trooper Knight in apprehending the others at the Rip Van Winkle bridge entrance.

May Be Part of Ring
Other information obtained by the police indicated that the four may be part of a ring suspected of operating in other areas of the state.

Information following the arrests yesterday indicated that the four had stopped in Catskill before coming to this city. Many articles of clothing taken from the auto, police believed, were taken from Catskill stores.

Capt. Roedel said he obtained a statement from the driver but the others refused to talk last night. The driver indicated that he was hired only to drive the women and said he had no knowledge of the alleged thefts.

Further police information indicated that the registration for the car had been obtained yesterday and other reports hinted that the car for the vehicle might have been changed several times as a means of escaping police attention.

Had Paid Fare
Captain Roedel said that the driver had paid the toll for the car to pass over the Rip Van Winkle bridge, and it was about to proceed when it was stopped by the trooper. He searched the car and found most of the clothing later brought to local headquarters, but had some difficulty in finding the fur pieces described in the message from this city. It was found later in a paper bag.

Detective Clarence Brophy and Acting Detective William Krum were dispatched to Catskill to return the trio to this city, following Trooper Knight's message on their capture. They were returned here shortly before 8 p. m. All were arrested by Captain Roedel and lodged in the county jail pending arraignment today.

Captain Roedel described the woman as dressed in long, loose clothing, and he said information supplied by the furrier indicated that the fur pieces found in the auto, might have been taken between the time his wife came to the store and he left to telephone the police.

Other information on the arrests is to be supplied area police following further questioning of the group, and the local police expect to learn more of other similarly reported thefts in other cities in the Hudson valley and metropolitan areas.

All Retail Stores Invited in Contest

All Kingston retail stores, regardless of the kind of merchandise they handle or their location in the city, are invited to participate in the Misplaced Article Contest to be conducted in connection with the current "Spring-on-Parade" program sponsored by the Retail Merchants Division of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce. Matthew Morgan, chairman of the special committee, stated this morning that store entries should be in by Saturday of this week to allow time to prepare the entry blank for contestants on which all cooperating stores must be listed. Participation is open to all stores and not limited to Chamber of Commerce members.

During the "Spring-on-Parade" program which started Wednesday and will continue to April 16, all stores in Kingston will display new merchandise, new styles, new models and new products. All shoppers are invited to inspect the attractive values offered and watch for the details of the Misplaced Article Contest to be announced next week.

More Industry Is Chief Public Item

An analysis of the 160 suggestions collected in the Kingston Chamber of Commerce booth at the Lions Club exposition last week was released today by Executive Secretary Albert Kurdt. The largest number on one subject related to more factories and employment for men.

Thirty-three persons suggested that getting new factories should be an important part of the Chamber of Commerce program. Twenty-four persons suggested more recreation and park facilities for boys and girls, eleven related to the veterans' housing project on Charlotte street and thirty-seven good miscellaneous suggestions were received.

Kurdt, stated that the various suggestions will be referred to the proper committee by President Robert E. Teetsel for consideration. Some of them were considered at a meeting of the Community Improvement Committee Wednesday night.

Ladies' Auxiliary Entertains Past Exalted Rulers

The ladies of the B.P.O. Elks recently entertained the past exalted rulers of Kingston Lodge No. 550 with a delicious turkey dinner served at the Elks Club. There was a large number of past exalted rulers present, also Exalted Ruler Krum and the chaplain, the Rev. Stanley Dean.

Mrs. William Powers, president of the auxiliary, warmly welcomed the guests and said the members looked forward to this particular evening each year as an opportunity to express personally to a representative group of Kingston Lodge the deep appreciation and gratitude of the auxiliary members for the many courtesies and privileges extended to them during the year. She also said the auxiliary keynote for the past year has been "Promote harmony and strive to emulate the high standards established by the B.P.O. Elks organization."

County Judge John M. Cashin, responding for the past exalted rulers, gave an interesting and inspiring talk in the course of which he spoke of the advantage of freedom to express opinions in the lodge room, and the necessity to follow through with cooperation in accepting the result of the majority vote. In his inimitable way he told of some humorous incidents he had encountered.

Roger Baer entertained with a group of selections on the solovox and Howard Hotelling played several piano-accompaniment selections followed by Ray Howe's rendition of "Old Man River." Mr. Howe also led the entire group in singing old and new favorites, accompanied by Baer and Hotelling. Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Varshaw, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Swarthout in costume, sang the Elks' Auxiliary song, lyrics by Mrs. Powers, and Mrs. Peacor recited a poem with a musical background. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed by all.

A large corps of charming hostesses, all members of the Auxiliary, graciously served each table. Arrangements were made by Mrs. G. Logan, chairman, and Mrs. William Krum and Mrs. William Powers, co-chairmen. At the regular meeting which followed, plans were made for a covered dish supper to honor the past presidents of the Auxiliary in their new role as the board of trustees. This board will meet for the first time before the next business meeting. Mrs. Arthur Ballard and Mrs. Albert Ross, are co-chairmen of the supper and all members planning to attend are asked to bring in addition to a covered dish an individual place setting and china service. For further details call Mrs. Ballard, 6180, or Mrs. Rossi, 4857.

Truman Still Wants

porations and perhaps from individuals in higher-income brackets. At a later news conference, he indicated he felt personal income taxes could be increased on people earning $6,000 or more a year.

The President's tax remarks were among several news conference comments in the economic field. He also said:

1. He is still sticking by his request that Congress give him stand-by power to put in rationing and price controls—that the idea has not been shelved.

His request for such anti-inflation legislation, he declared, is one of the main reasons that inflation has been temporarily held off. The proposed program, he added, has had a good effect already.

2. Dr. Edwin G. Nourse is not resigning as chairman of his council of economic advisers.

That was in response to a question. Nourse has been reported at odds with other members of the council—Leon Keyserling and John D. Clark. For one thing, Nourse is reported to be less inclined to favor anti-inflation controls.

Despite Mr. Truman's contention that his price-rationing program has not been shelved, there are strong indications at the capital that support for it there is weakening.

Several key Democratic senators told reporters in interviews prior to the President's news conference that they believed the nation is in for a period of "healthy readjustment" that probably has removed any great need at present for the controls.

'Ace-Showing' Reply To Two-Bid Works

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service.

How to respond when your partner makes a two-bid is a point on which you should have definite knowledge. In the past most players use the so-called "ace-showing" responses to the two-bid. Fred Kaplan, a prominent New York attorney, first brought these responses to my attention years ago, and I have written them up often since, because they were immediately taken up by a great many of the experts. The responses to the two-bid are: Holding two aces, bid four no trump; holding only one ace, regardless of the number of kings, bid the suit containing the ace. Holding a trick and a half in kings and queens, that is, a king-queen of one suit, and king of another suit, or three kings, bid three no trump. You will note that this does not include any ace holding. In other words, when you bid three no trump, you deny holding any ace.

What are the requirements for making a two-bid? You should have a positive game-going hand and one which will be helped by the information gained from one of the above responses. In today's hand, for example, when South opens the bidding with two spades, North's correct response is three hearts to show the ace of that suit. It does not indicate that he has a heart suit, but simply says, "Partner, I have the ace of hearts."

South then bids three spades. North holds the king of spades, and he knows it is a full trick, so he jumps to five spades. Knowing the North would not dare to make this jump without the king of spades, South safely has six spades. This is easily made as declarer has to lose only the ace of trumps.

Sweenys Plan Golfing Honeymoon in South

Palm Beach, Fla., March 31 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sweeney, Jr., planned a golfing honeymoon today following their fashionable wedding.

Friends said the former British amateur golf champion and his bride would go to Augusta, Ga., for the Masters tournament, April 7-10, and then visit Dallas, Texas; Pinehurst, N. C., and White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., before sailing for England in May. Sweeney was married to Miss Jeanne Marie Connelley, New York debutante, in St. Edward's Catholic Church at 4:15 p. m. (E.S.T.) yesterday by the Rev. Patrick D. O'Brien. The bride, daughter of Mrs. M. S. Huntington Watts and John H. Connelley, both of New York, was given in marriage by Winston Frederick Churchill Guest, polo player and big game hunter, of New York and Palm Beach. Sweeney, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sweeney, of New York and London, is president of the Federated Trust, a London banking firm.

The couple said they planned to establish homes in New York and London later in the year. The Connells, who had some degree of independence, supplied the Russian empire with cavalry and coats in lieu of paying taxes.

Asks $400 a Week

New York, March 31 (AP)—Roger Harvey Thiele, described as owner of the Howard Johnson Restaurant at White Plains, N. Y., was named defendant yesterday in a suit for separation filed in Supreme Court by Mrs. Karen Elizabeth Thiele. The suit came to light when Mrs. Thiele moved to transfer to the New York County Supreme Court a suit for separation brought against her in Westchester county by Thiele. She asked that both cases be tried here. Mrs. Thiele also asked the court to award her $400 a week temporary alimony and $10,000 fees for her counsel, Warner and Birdsall.

Budenz Says Reds Gave Cue Opening '41 Allis Strike

New York, March 31 (AP)—Communist chiefs, seeking to halt war aid to Britain, flashed the word that heralded the long 1941 strike at the Milwaukee Allis-Chalmers plant, a government witness says.

Louis F. Budenz, on the stand in the Communist conspiracy trial, testified yesterday the strike signal came at a secret party meeting at Milwaukee in 1940 in the days of the Hitler-Stalin pact.

He said Eugene Dennis, party general secretary and a defendant, told the meeting that the party's U. S. Politburo had recommended the strike to block "the flow of war materials."

Among those present at the meeting, Budenz said, was Harold Christoffel, then president of the Allis-Chalmers local of the C.I.O. United Automobile Workers.

"Christoffel said an occasion for such a stoppage could be found," the witness testified, "and Dennis said it should be done as soon as possible."

The strike came off early in 1941, but was ended before Germany invaded Russia in June, the witness said.

Budenz, former Communist official, broke with the party in 1945, and rejoined the Roman Catholic Church. He is the first government witness called in the trial of 11 Communist leaders.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina rebuked the defendant for "smiling, sneering and snickering" during Budenz's testimony. Defense lawyers jumped up to protest, as did Dennis, who is defending himself.

"We do not take these proceedings lightly," said Dennis. "I saw you," the judge retorted. "You were one of the chief offenders."

The exchange came in a courtroom flurry touched off when Medina accidentally mistated the charge against the defendants.

He said they were accused of "conspiring to overthrow the government" instead of "conspiring to teach and advocate the overthrow" of the government.

Dennis brought a defense demand for a mistrial, which was denied. Budenz testified the Milwaukee party meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Meta Berger, widow of Victor L. Berger, once Socialist congressman from Milwaukee. She died in 1944.

The witness said Wisconsin Communist leaders were told by Dennis to be prepared to go underground to "turn the imperialistic war into a civil war" if the U.S. entered the war on the side of Britain.

Christoffel told the Milwaukee

Soviets Have 'Army' Of 100,000 Scientists

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—Sergei Vavilov, president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, said today the Soviet Union has "an army of over 100,000" scientists.

Addressing Komsomol, a Soviet youth organization, he urged the younger generation to supply "new, talented reinforcements." Science in the U.S.S.R. has achieved great successes, he said, but "these successes still are not enough."

meeting, Budenz said, that the Allis-Chalmers strike could be effected through "friction between the U.A.W. and A.F.L. unions."

Christoffel was expelled last year by the Allis-Chalmers union which installed right-wing officers. He was convicted a year ago in Federal Court of lying when he told the House Labor Committee he never had been a Communist. The case is on appeal to the Supreme Court.

Ringlings Answer Plea With Two Circus Tickets

New York, March 31 (AP)—Nine-year-old Rose Gelbard stood and stared at the bright circus poster with the laughing clown one day.

That night she wrote a letter. Although Rose, her parents and her brother, Jackie, 4, had arrived in this country only a week before as war refugees, her English was clear:

"Dear Ringling Brothers. I saw a picture with a funny clown and says there will be a circus. Please can I come to your circus. In the place I was before I came here to U.S.A., there was never circus or anything for us to laugh. Always we are running from war. My mother saw a circus. My mother says before the war we could see circus monkeys and everything and things to eat but I wasn't born then.

"I thought maybe you would have a seat nobody wants and you would rile me a letter because I would want that seat so much. If you have no seats I could stand up. I would be glad to stand up just to see your circus. If you have a seat my brother could come. We only need one seat. He is 4."

"Thank you please rile to me. Your friend, Rose Gelbard."

Yesterday, Rose received a reply from the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus from its winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla. It said two seats had been reserved for Rose and Jackie for an afternoon performance of the circus at Madison Square Garden April 13.

Rose read the letter over and over again. She laughed and cried. "I once saw a monkey in Antwerp," she said, "but never a circus."

Rent Gougers Fined $5,000 or 600 Days

New York, March 31 (AP)—Three rent gougers must pay fines of $5,000 each by April 18 or spend 600 days in jail.

In addition, each has a suspended term of one year in a penitentiary, and sentence on 13 other counts also has been suspended. The penalties were imposed yesterday in Manhattan's first commercial rent gouging prosecution.

The defendants pleaded guilty to 24 counts involving a total of $9,251. The fines were $500 each or 60 days in jail on each of ten gouging charges. The suspended penitentiary terms were for conspiracy.

The three men, who were arrested last July, are Jack Gross, 29, of Queens; and S. Robert Olick, 28, and Bernard Berford, 29, both of Brooklyn.

Warehouse Strike Ends

New York, March 31 (AP)—Some 1,500 workers go back to work today in 300 waterfront warehouses where more than $100,000,000 worth of imports have piled up in a two-day strike. The workers, members of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Union, voted yesterday to accept a 13-cent hourly wage increase, retroactive to December 1.

The settlement boosts the average pay of strikers to $1.58 an hour. A union announcement said the terms, reached after several federal mediators stepped into the dispute, were ratified by locals in Brooklyn, Staten Island and Jersey City, N. J. Employers originally offered a four-cent hourly increase after the previous contract expired last September.

Local Grange Host To Stone Ridgers; To Visit Plattskill

Rosendale, March 31—At the regular meeting held Monday evening Rosendale Grange was host to Stone Ridge Grange in the county-wide visitation series. After a short business session Ross Osterhoudt, worthy lecturer of Stone Ridge presented the lecturer's program. The theme of the visitation meetings is "America for Me—Speak America, Think America, Live America." Tom Boshall of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation opened the program showing the movie, "Of This We Are Proud." Mrs. Ross Osterhoudt recited the American's Creed, preceded by a brief biographical sketch of the author, William Tyler Page, after which all present joined in the pledge to the flag. The poem, "A Patriotic Creed" was read by L. W. Connor. Mrs. A. Altieri read an original paper entitled "The World We Want," which presented a cross-section of the varied ancestral stock of the peoples who settled and live in America. "Your Flag and My Flag" was recited by Ross Osterhoudt. This was followed by a vocal solo "Cruising Down the River" by Mrs. Charles Hasbrouck, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. D. Easton. The recreational part of the program consisted of a game in which several members participated, and an historical quiz. Mrs. Stanley Roosa presented a reading entitled, "My Land." After the closing song the collection was taken for the scholarship fund. Worthy master of the Rosendale Grange, George Mollenhauer, introduced the worthy master, Charles Hardenburgh of Stone Ridge Grange, worthy county deputy, Harold V. Story and worthy juvenile county deputy, Mrs. Isaac Graham. Refreshments and a social hour followed adjournment of the meeting. There were 32 members present from Stone Ridge Grange, two members from Ulster Park Grange and 47 from Rosendale Grange.

Stassen Suggests Revision of U.N. Charter in 3 Years

New Brunswick, N. J., March 31 (AP)—Terming the United Nations a "veto-riddled organization," Harold E. Stassen last night called for a complete revision of the U. N. charter "about three years from now."

Stassen, now president of the University of Pennsylvania, said the three years would reveal "the lasting intentions of the Soviet Union and answer the question whether they, at that future time, will join in strengthening the U. N. or whether we must slide down the tragic road toward the horrors of a third world war."

Stassen criticized groups working for formation of an international organization, excluding Russia, saying an agency without the Soviet Union is a contradiction of terms, because "Russia and her satellites are in the world."

Stassen said the U. N. organization provides the "best hopes for a lasting and just peace in this troubled world." He spoke at the opening of the model United Nations General Assembly at Rutgers University before more than 1,000 persons.

As Pegler Sees It

lortions and overtime frauds, first authorized by Roosevelt, have driven up the cost of building labor by at least 50 per cent. Truman had the effrontery to complain that the removal of rent controls would increase by 10 or 20 per cent the living costs of the parasites who are in the first place responsible for the shortage of rental properties.

"Lobbying" is an innocent term of sinister origin. In the first place it meant the activities of bribe-givers who put through various grabs for public utilities, including rights of way for railroads and city transportation, gas and electric lines and franchises. These lobbyists hung around the lobbies of the legislatures and were depicted in spotted vests, smoking chair-leg cigars.

There is no doubt that through them their employers, the soulless corporations of Wall and La Salle Streets, stole many a birthright of the people. Incidentally, Franklin D. Roosevelt often boasted, and falsely, that he had been counsel for the New York Stock Exchange, which is the heart of Wall Street, and in 1924, he heartily endorsed John W. Davis, counsel for J. P. Morgan and Co., the only veritable Wall Street candidate ever put forth by any party. The boast was false because Roosevelt never was that good a lawyer.

There are only a few actual registered lobbyists in Washington representing real estate interests. If there were a thousand of them and they had each spent $100,000 in the last year, their total outlay would still be petty by comparison with the slush funds which are squeezed out of labor and industry every year by the unions of Truman's party. Mr. Truman here argues that the unions have a right to lobby against the landlords' lobby but that the landlords' lobby has no right to lobby against rent control.

Lobbying is, in the respectable sense of the word, simply the presentation to Congress of the arguments and interests of the parties who employ the lobbyists. It is the exercise of the right of petition. In this case, the petition was so potent in its appeal to justice that it won a partial victory against a corrupt mass of wealth and ruthless political power for which the President was the spokesman during his campaign and has been ever since.

Commission Will Handle Requests for Souvenirs

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Want a piece of the White House for a souvenir? The Executive Mission is being remodeled and there will be tons of old nails, slivers of wood, partly charred timber, antique hardware, bricks.

Disposal of this historically valuable debris will be up to a six-member commission President

Truman says should be named to supervise the White House remodeling.

The House is now studying a bill designed to establish the commission—two senators, two members of the House and two persons named by the President. Approval of the measure was predicted today.

If you want, say, a nail that tore Abraham's pants, you'll have to take it up with this commission.

Students Are Injured

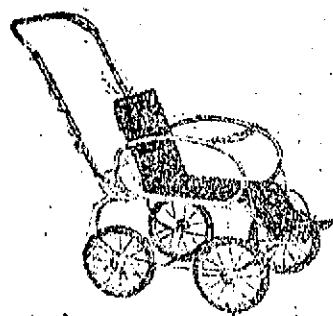

Brookline, Mass., March 31 (AP)—Two Boston College Law School students were injured last night when their automobile crashed into a tree on Worcester Turnpike. The impact split the car in two. Ralph O. Marano, Jr., 26, of 1 Garrett Place, Bronxville, N. Y., was critically hurt. He suffered a fractured nose and multiple face cuts. He was treated at the same hospital.

The Philippines, although rich in bird life, have few native animals.

Inter-Spinal Disks Can Cause Trouble; Operations Made

By FRANK CAREY
(Associated Press Science Reporter)

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Watch out for those "inter-vertebral disks"—and that doesn't mean disks of the flying saucer variety.

Intervertebral disks are rings of hard cartilage that act as shock absorbers between the vertebrae—the segments of your backbone.

If one of these disks is ruptured, pressure on the nerve roots of the spinal cord results. "Ruptured disks" are one of the common causes of "low-back pain" and sciatica.

Up to about 16 years ago, these disks had not been definitely criminated as a potential cause of such painful conditions.

Dr. William Jason Mixter of Boston is one of the pioneers who put the surgical finger on them and developed an operative technique which now is bringing relief to thousands of people each year.

At a sectional meeting of the American College of Surgeons here, Mixter gave a down-to-earth description of these disks and what happens when they get out of kilter.

"The intervertebral disk," he said, "is a ring of hard cartilage which contains a center of softer material.

"If the ring is broken, material from the ring itself and from the soft center flows into the spinal canal, compressing the nerve roots.

Castle Is Naval Center

Madrid (AP)—The Spanish Navy has acquired one of the finest castles in Spain for its archives. The 16th century palace was given the Navy by the Marquis of Santa Cruz. Situated in El Viso in southern Spain, it was the residence of the marquis' ancestor, Don Alvaro de Bazan, famous Spanish Admiral who successfully fought the Turks in the naval battle of Lepanto, in 1571. It contains a valuable collection of 16th century paintings.

Dane Will Sign Pact
New York, March 31 (AP)—Gustav Rasmussen, Danish foreign minister, arrived today en route to Washington to sign the North Atlantic Pact. "The general feeling in my country is that we are doing the right thing in joining the alliance," he said after he alighted from a trans-Atlantic plane. "Most everyone is satisfied. The Communists, though, don't like it a bit." Rasmussen plans to remain in New York today and leave for Washington tomorrow.

Dewey Gets Bill To Keep Reds Out Of Public Schools

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—A bill, designed to weed out and bar Communists from jobs in New York's public school system went to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today for expected approval.

The State Assembly gave the measure overwhelming final legislative approval last night, over objections of some minority Democrats.

Under terms of the bill, the Board of Regents must maintain a list of organizations it finds subversive and set rules to prevent members from holding jobs in the public school system.

The bill's preamble states: "There is a common report that members of subversive groups, and particularly the Communist Party and certain of its affiliated organizations, have infiltrated into public employment in schools of the state."

Another measure sent to Governor Dewey by the Republican-controlled Legislature would prohibit use of public buildings by organizations which the U. S. attorney general lists as subversive. The Assembly voted final approval, 120 to 23 on the public school bill, 37 Democrats joined 85 Republicans in the 122-25 Assembly vote. Assemblyman Samuel Roman, Manhattan Republican, voted against it.

The Senate passed the measure Tuesday 41 to 34. There also, one Republican, Senator Thomas C. Desmond of Newburgh, opposed it.

Senate Majority Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg, who resigned last night to become chairman of the Public Service Commission, introduced the measure.

In debate, Assemblyman Louis A. Cioffi, Manhattan Democrat, said the measure "violates freedom of speech and assembly" of school teachers. Assemblyman Eugene F. Bannigan, Brooklyn Democrat, termed it "vicious."

But Majority Leader Lee B. Miller insisted that the bill inflicted "no limitation on political activity" and represented "no attempt to make membership in any organization criminal."

Saxe and Warren New Dairy Herd Directors

New Paltz, March 31—At this week's annual meeting of the Ulster County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, two new directors were elected and three were returned to serve again on the board.

The new directors are Ira Saxe of West Hurley and Warren Egan of New Paltz, who was later named president of the board.

Directors re-elected were Alfred Bedell of Walkkill; Joseph Brill of Stone Ridge and Frank Elliott of New Paltz, who was chosen as vice president.

Prof. John E. Peterson of the Animal Husbandry Department at Cornell University addressed the meeting, emphasizing the importance of a good barnyard pasture program on dairy farms in order for a dairyman to make real herd improvement.

This association now employs three supervisors who regularly weigh each cow's milk production and test each cow's milk for butterfat. By using these records over a period of time, dairymen are able to improve their dairy herds by intelligent culling of poorer cows and by improving the better cows through breeding. In addition, members are furnished feed costs and value of product of each cow.

Russians Seize Hundreds on Way To Western Zone

Berlin, March 31 (AP)—Hundreds of west Berlin Germans were seized by Russian military police and Soviet-controlled German police in sudden raids on Berlin suburban railroad stations and trains last night.

The roundups were conducted for the ostensible purpose of checking identification papers. But only residents of the blockaded western sectors were grabbed.

Most of the west Berliners seized were returning from the surrounding Soviet zone where they had conducted barter with farmers.

They were carried off to control stations where, they related, the police confiscated their western currency and food or fuel parcels they were carrying.

Some were released soon after search and confiscation but estimates of those still held ran into the hundreds.

Ashcroft Continues
Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—Democratic Assemblyman Jeremiah J. Ashcroft was assured today of continuing in office as a result of the Republican-controlled Assembly's refusal to unseat him. Ashcroft's G.O.P. opponent had challenged the Utica Democrat's election on the basis of alleged fraud and voting irregularities last November 2.

Cancer Financial Campaign Will Open on Friday

In this county and 53 others in upstate New York, volunteer workers tomorrow will begin the 1949 campaign of the New York State Division of the American Cancer Society to raise a minimum of $667,500.

On the eve of the fund drive, Clifford J. Fletcher, New York State motor vehicle commissioner and state campaign chairman, called on workers throughout the 54-county upstate area to "attain your goals, and then strike a further blow at cancer by getting more than we are asked to get."

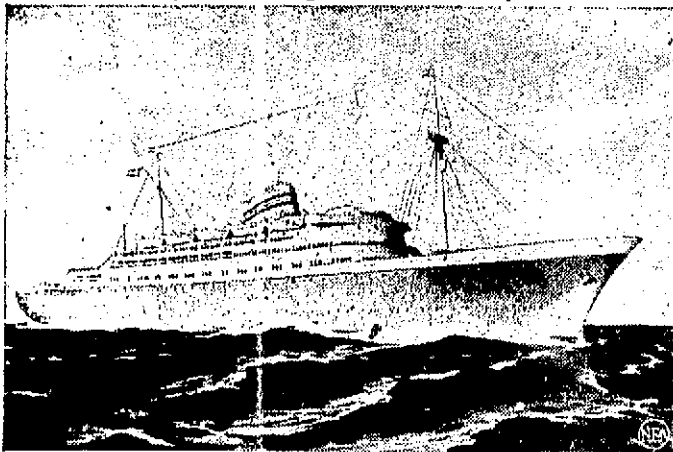

"In this continuing fight against cancer," said Mr. Fletcher, "it is difficult to say that we have a certain share. No one can say that our stated goal is our share. Instead, I believe that in a cause like this, only our absolute best is good enough."

rallying cry for the drive, which has the sanction of President Truman, Governor Dewey and public officials everywhere, is "Cancer can strike anyone—but you can strike back." The drive will continue all through April.

Judge James J. Barrett, Syracuse, president of the State Cancer division, said in a pre-campaign statement:

"Cancer, the second most frequent cause of death in America, will result in more than 200,000

Here is an artist's conception of the new 16,500-ton motor ship Oslofjord, Norway's newest luxury liner. She will be christened in Amsterdam, Holland, by Norwegian Crown Princess Martha on April 2. deaths in 1949. With the funds we and the national society are seeking this year, it is hoped that this figure can be reduced greatly.

There is evidence that 1949 may well be the most important year of our lives in progress against this tragic disease. We are fast reaching a climax in our fight to unlock the secret of cancer. If enough funds are made available to push forward the work of research and to build the frontal assault of detection and treatment, we can be most optimistic about the outcome."

Mr. Fletcher urged everyone to give liberally in the April campaign. "What you give may help save a life," he said. "It may be your own, or someone dear to you. When our volunteer workers call on you, give as much as you can. No one can afford not to give to this humanitarian cause."

Rain Making

Johannesburg (AP)—Experiments

in artificial rain-making are "another Tower of Babel that will never see completion," declares the Rev. J. J. Jordaan. He was commenting on the unanimous decision of two communities of the Dutch Reformed Church to petition the South African prime minister to introduce legislation prohibiting such experiments. The Scriptures made it clear that none but God could control rain, it was declared.

YOU'RE only human if Buick style and size and bearing stop you on the street for a second admiring appraisal.

And we know you'd like the broader 1949 outlook that results from higher, wider windshields, narrower corner posts, and expanded "seeing area" all around.

But let's be practical a minute and talk price.

Here are ours, published for public examination. You see exactly what they include before you buy—and get an itemized, fully-detailed bill of sale on delivery.

But ask yourself—

Where else at any price do you get valve-in-head engine design—plus Fireball's extra wallop?

Where else at any price do you get soft, level-going all-coil springing—plus low-pressure tires on the widest rims in the industry?

Where else can you find the silken magic of Dynaflo Drive—lauded by outside authorities as the biggest thing since the self-starter and probably the coming thing in car transmission?

Where else can you get so many "extras" at no extra cost whatever—direction signals, oil filters, rear wheel shields, flexible steering wheel, air cleaner—all part and parcel of this smart, sizable, steady-going Buick package!

And we might add—where do you find a better, clearer, fairer deal than Buick dealers offer? Pricing according to normal prewar practice—extras as you want them—trade-ins or not, as you desire—here's clean dealing for anyone's money.

But—come see for yourself. Satisfy yourself that Buick's the buy. You won't take long getting a firm order in!

*Standard on ROADMASTER models, optional at extra cost on SUPERS. Available only on Buicks.

Hope College Men's Glee Club Heard At Fair Street Church

Hope College Men's Glee Club sang a concert at Fair Street Reformed Church Wednesday night. The club provided a variety of selections for entertainment as well as the two groups of sacred music. The balance and tone of the chorus were unusually fine under the direction of Prof. Robert W. Cavanaugh, head of the music department at Hope College, Holland, Mich. About 250 attended.

In addition to the choral numbers, a cornet trio of Calvin W. Swart, Lee Sneden and Philip A. Frederickson, played Echoes of the Caisles by Rogers and several encores.

Herbert Ritsma played two piano solos: Revolutionary Etude Opus 10 No. 12, Chopin; and Polonaise in E Minor by Mendelssohn. He also assisted Robert Barr, accompanist.

Jay Woeener played the violin obligato in one of the choral numbers.

Of interest locally, Richard F. and Robert D. Miller, twin brothers of Wallkill sang in the second tenor section. The club will sing at the Wallkill High School tomorrow.

Among the lighter numbers were The Grasshopper arranged by Olekoy; Yugoslav Folk Song; Smith-Aschenbrenner; March of the Musketeers; Fennel; and the closing college medley. The club sang the popular arrangement of Bones as one of the encores.

The sacred music included selections by Palestrina, Brahms, Schubert, Cain and Franck. Members of the club were overnight guests of members of the church congregation. Today they will sing in Hudson High School and tonight in Poughkeepsie. After the concert in Wallkill tomorrow the club will go to New York for several concerts.

Century Club Considers

Recent Magazine Article

The Twentieth Century Club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. R. H. Woodard, 42 Roosevelt avenue. The program for the day was given by Miss Alice Scuddefield, Mrs. Herbert Rhodes, Mrs. R. P. Taylor and Mrs. William Soper.

The subject matter related to a survey published by the Women's Home Companion in July 1948 and entitled "Unnecessary Operations." Material was provided by the State Federation of Women's Clubs. The basic statistics and facts of this survey are one of the most controversial questions of the day, the program pointed out. Miss Scuddefield, as one of the speakers explained, that both of the local hospitals are approved by the American College of Surgeons with an A rating. Also as part of the day's study, Mrs. T. D. Edmonston read an original theme entitled, "Meditation." She spoke of the women of the Bible and their contribution to spiritual development from the beginning of the world until this day.

During the business meeting, many phases of the State Federation program were outlined by Mrs. Woodard.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. William Soper, 207 West Chestnut street.

Prices Cut by Two Ice Cream Companies

Reductions in the wholesale price of ice cream, ranging from three cents per quart to four cents per quart, were announced today by Breyer Ice Cream Company and Hydrox Ice Cream Company, two major companies operating in the New York area.

These reductions put the wholesale prices of Breyer's and Hydrox Ice Creams back to approximately the April, 1948 levels, when increasing costs of cream, labor and other materials forced Breyer and Hydrox, along with other ice cream companies to boost their prices.

The current reductions, accord-

A WISE AND COURTEOUS PRECEDENT

A meticulously accurate point of view is displayed in the following letter: "While on a holiday not long ago I lost my purse with a large sum of money, identification cards, keys and other personal belongings. When I returned home there was a letter from a stranger enclosing her personal check for the amount found in my purse and explaining that she was sending the purse and contents under separate cover. It has arrived with everything intact. Now what can I do about rewarding the person?"

In addition to the security of exchanging the money for a check there is also the obviously implied message that the stranger did not wish you to return part of the money as a reward. Therefore, a letter telling her how glad you are to recover your property and thanking her for her kindness is all that is expected of you—or for that matter, proper.

Hostess Goes First When Necessary

Dear Mrs. Post: Please tell me which is correct: Should hostess or her guests follow a headwaiter into a public dining room?

Answer: If she has ordered her table beforehand she lets her guests go first, but if she wants to be able to select the table it would be necessary for her to go first. In other words, it is always proper that a hostess do what is practical—such as going first to find the lights in a darkened room, or to show the way anywhere. It would be polite for her to excuse herself as she does so.

A Stepfather Situation

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter has had a stepfather since she was very young and she has now become engaged. Shall her stepfather and I announce the engagement as though she were our child, or shall I announce it alone?

Answer: The wording should be: Mr. and Mrs. John Smith are announcing the engagement of Mrs. Smith's daughter, Miss Muriel Blank, to Mr. John Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Oakland, California. Miss Blank is the daughter of the late Mr. Richard Blank.

Mrs. Post's letter, E-10, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements," explains the use of various forms under different circumstances, such as a double wedding invitation. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

ing to company officials were made possible by the lower cost of cream. The costs of other materials used in the making of ice cream have not come down, and labor costs have actually gone up since 1948.

When wholesale prices were increased in 1948, dealers generally increased their prices 5 cents per quart and 5 cents per pint to consumers. It is expected that dealers will now reduce their prices to consumers accordingly.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The way a classic fashion makes news is by appearing in a new and sometimes revolutionary type of fabric.

By this token, the familiar-looking peddle pusher outfit and sweaters shown make news this spring.

Nylon in candy bright colors makes the pullover and cardigan team of sweaters (above). Because nylon yarn's invincible strength hides behind a softness as strokeable as a kitten's ear, these sweaters are alluring to look at and durable. They dry quickly after washing and need no blocking.

What puts the peddle pusher's blouse (right) smack up front in fashion's spotlight is the non-crushable Irish linen used to keep these active sportswear garments wrinkle-free. The color for the familiar peddle pushers in their new fabric guise is clear blue. The companion blouse is made of the pure white linen that never yellows no matter how long it lasts.

Lowell Club Hears of Gardens And Old Spanish Missions

Mrs. Mary Chidester who has just returned from Florida gave a paper on Brook Green Gardens, South Carolina, at the Lowell Literary Club meeting Tuesday afternoon. The club met with Mrs. John D. Graves in West Hurley. In addition to Mrs. Chidester's paper, Mrs. John H. Saxe gave a paper on Old Spanish Missions.

Mrs. Chidester had visited the gardens during her trip south. Brook Green consists of 6,635 acres of land about 75 miles north of Charleston, near Myrtle Beach. The tract was given to the state and endowed for upkeep by Mr. and Mrs. Archer Huntington. Mr. Huntington was the adopted son of Corliss P. Huntington, railroad magnate who was born in Ontario. Mrs. Huntington bore her marriage was Anna Hyatt, a sculptor.

Because of her interest in sculpture, the gardens and museum were arranged to contain pieces of her work, those of others and replicas of the most famous statuary in the United States. Altogether 272 pieces of statuary of United States design are contained in the display. One part of the garden contains a wall in the shape of a huge butterfly with wings outstretched to make niches for statuary and plants. The tract is a refuge for wild life and contains also 580 varieties of plants, all native to the state. Mrs. Chidester showed many pictures of the gardens and a book giving details of the place.

Mrs. Saxe in discussing the Old Spanish missions, traced the arrival of the Franciscan, Dominican and Jesuit missionaries. She noted that Cortez believed each missionary was worth a thousand soldiers in subduing the natives. Sir Francis Drake sent by Queen Elizabeth in 1579 brought the first chaplain of the Church of England. She spoke of the mission at San Antonio which had to be moved because of lack of water; the mission at Santa Barbara whose funds for upkeep were withdrawn because of the Mexican War. Mrs. Saxe also traced the work of Father Juniper Serra and his devotion to the task.

The next meeting of the Lowell Club, April 5, will be the annual meeting with election of officers and yearly reports. Mrs. Marie Gunther of the Ontario Trail will be the hostess.

Yes, in hardest water, FAB washes everything cleaner, whiter, brighter and faster than any soap ever made!

No soap made can get your wash as white, as bright, as clean as FAB with Super-Wetting Action can!

Super-Wetting Action is a new, scientific washing principle. When you wash, FAB penetrates materials faster, more thoroughly; pushes dirt out! No soap scum.

FAB is SAFE for clothes and up to twice as economical as soap, in hard water!

FABULOUS SUDS... EVEN IN HARDEST WATER!

The instant you put FAB into your tub, washer or dishpan, you'll get rich, dirt-busting SUDS, even in hardest water!

What is Super-Wetting Action?

To see, roll cotton thread into a little ball and drop into a glass of water. It floats. Drop another little ball of thread into a glass of water and FAB. It sinks. FAB becomes soaked at once.

Roosa and Sergeant Given Citations

Roosa and Venable Given Certificates By Kingston Lions

Kenneth C. Roosa, Kingston Daily Freeman photographer, and First Sergeant Moir L. Venable, U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Service, Kingston office, were presented with certificates of appreciation by the Kingston Lions Club at the regular meeting Tuesday noon at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Roosa was cited for his many fine acts of cooperation for the Lions and was given special mention for his assistance during last week's industrial exposition "Kingston on Parade" at the New York State Armory.

President Francis Martocci, who made the presentations, thanked Roosa and then remarked that the searchlight obtained for the "Kingston on Parade" event by Sergeant Venable "contributed a great deal to the success of the exposition."

Reports have been received that the powerful beam of the 800 million candlepower light had been seen from as far away as Catskill, Mt. Tremper, Kerhonkson, Highland and Poughkeepsie, Martocci said. He added that he overheard one person from Catskill and another from Woodstock say that they had seen the light and had come to Kingston "to find what it was all about."

The light was obtained through Robert Cousins, a Lion member, who contacted Sgt. Venable. The sergeant "broke through a mass of Army red tape to get the light here," Martocci said, and "we want the Kingston Lions and the public to know of the job he did."

Compliments Lions

In accepting the certificate, Sgt. Venable complimented the Lions for the hospitality shown the two operators of the light, Staff Sergeants Roy C. Meinberg and Jack A. Stock of the southern recruiting district. He assured the Lions that these two men would tell others in the southern district of the "fine treatment they received in Kingston."

15,091 Attended

Reporting on the success of the exposition, the second sponsored by the Kingston Lions Club, Martocci disclosed that the total attendance for the five nights was 15,091, more than double that of last year.

He said that plans are already being made for another exposition to be held next year at the state armory.

President Martocci said the affair was a success because of the united efforts of the committee members and the club membership at large. He said that all exhibitors seemed to be well pleased.

Clifford B. Bunting, general chairman, was given a rising vote of thanks. Bunting expressed his appreciation for the cooperation extended by the exhibitors and added that "two of the Lions hope the exposition proved to be as much of a success to the exhibitors as it was to us."

Treasure Just Loot Of Modern Robbers

Camden, N. J., March 31 (AP)—Two little boys are disillusioned today—the buried treasure they found turned out to be the loot of some modern day robbers.

Frederick Dawn, seven, and Frank Anton, eight, even on a treasure hunt yesterday along Newton creek. Digging through some metal boxes, they came on a number of watches, rings, a gun, bullets and a woman's bag.

Some of the "treasure" they parceled out to playmates, and the rest they took home. Frank's mother, Mrs. Catherine Anton, became curious when she saw her son twirling an old-fashioned watch on a heavy gold chain.

An investigation by police disclosed the "treasure" was merely buried loot from a half dozen robberies in southern New Jersey.

Now the problem is to find the robbers.

Rent Control Stays In State Till July 1950

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—New York's rent control laws will remain on the books for another year.

The Legislature last night unanimously passed legislation continuing until July 1, 1950, the state-wide, standby residential rent control law and the New York city commercial and business rent controls.

Governor Dewey is sure to sign the measures, since he had asked such action. He said earlier this week that he would not approve de-control—under the new federal legislation—in any New York community unless he were given "clearest proof" that rent ceilings no longer were needed.

New York's standby law can become operative only when all federal control is ended. Residential rent ceilings would be frozen at levels existing when the federal statute expired.

Oklahoma Woman
Has Year to Live,
$10,000 to Spend

Oklahoma City, March 31 (AP)—Death in 12 months—and $10,000 to spend before it comes. . . .

What would you do? An Oklahoma City woman—a middle-aged widow—doesn't know. But she is asking, in all sincerity, for advice.

Here is the background: We'll call her Mrs. Heart. She is 51. Doctors have told her a heart ailment probably will claim her within a year.

Mrs. Heart is moderately wealthy. She became a business woman after her husband was killed in the First World War, made wise investments, and used her money cautiously.

She sold her business eight years ago, ready to enjoy her financial harvest, to live in comparative luxury the rest of her life.

But then the doctor said only for a year.

Now she doesn't know what to do. Mrs. Heart through the Daily Oklahoman, has asked the public for advice. "The newspaper has investigated her story.

It's neither publicity nor sympathy Mrs. Heart is seeking. Just a simple request for help in deciding how best to spend $10,000.

As she puts it: "Every idea that comes to me seems silly or useless. I want a plan. I want a purpose."

The $10,000 isn't her entire estate. A daughter—she lives in California—has been "comfortably provided for."

Mrs. Heart won't tell her friends.

"Then," she says, "it immediately becomes a personal thing. They'd be forever asking if you felt all right. And they'd stop talking when you came into the room."

She has considered another marriage, but—

"I would want to know someone pretty well before I thought of marrying him. I am terribly lonely."

He would not share in her estate. Merely help her spend the $10,000 she allotted herself for this last year.

A calm philosophy has replaced the initial shock of knowing that death—to her—is a timed thing. "It's the most peculiar sort of feeling," she says. "I have lost fear. I used to be afraid to travel by plane. It made me ill."

Now it doesn't bother me at all. "It's a reckless kind of feeling."

If Alaska becomes the 49th state in the union, it will also be the largest.

Studies Mao Apes
Johannesburg (AP)—Within the next two months, Professor D. M. Watson, professor of zoology at University College, London, hopes to throw more light on the origin of man by establishing the age of South Africa's man-apes. He has just arrived here by air under a Nuffield Trust grant, and broke his journey at Nairobi, Kenya, to study what he regards as the forefathers of South Africa's man-apes. The East African finds are apes, he says, and not man-apes. By his study of Dr. Robert Broom's finds in South Africa, Prof. Watson hopes to be able to find out how they fit in with their East African ancestors and with all the other big apes such as chimpanzees and gorillas.

EASTER GLORY CAKE IS SIMPLE

The Easter season motif is carried out in this white cake with a nest of coconut and colored eggs.

By GAYNOR MADDON
For Easter, you may want a Glory Cake gleaming white with a green coconut nest filled with candy eggs. It is easily made with a simplified recipe and only two eggs.

Easter Glory Cake
Preparations: Have shortening at room temperature. Line bottoms of 2 deep 8-inch layer cake pans with paper; grease. Start oven for moderate heat, 375 degrees F. Sift flour once before measuring. Lift by spoonfuls into the cup until piled high, then level off by drawing spatula or straight knife across top. Do not pack or shake down.
Measure into sifter: 1 1/4 cups sifted cake flour, 2 1/4 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar.
Measure into mixing bowl: 1/2 cup shortening.
Measure into cup: Milk (with butter, margarine or lard, use 2/3 cup minus 1 tablespoon milk); (with vegetable or any other shortening, use 2/3 cup milk), 1 teaspoon vanilla.
Have ready 2 eggs, unbeaten.
Method: Stir shortening just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Add milk and mix until all flour is dampened. Then beat 300 strokes by hand or 2 minutes in mixer. Add eggs and beat 150 strokes or 1 minute in mixer. Mix cake by hand or at low speed of electric mixer. Count only actual beating strokes or beating time. Scrape bowl and spoon or beater often. Turn into pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes or until done. Cool in pans on cake racks five minutes. Then loosen from sides with spatula, turn out, remove paper and turn right-side up on racks to cool before frosting.

Frosting: Spread 7-minute frosting between layers and on sides and top of cake. The most of Easter eggs is made by tinting long strands of moist coconut with green food coloring. Vari-colored candy eggs (jelly beans) are placed in the nest.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, cornbread, butter or fortified margarine, crisp bacon, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Lima bean soup, crackers, tomato, lettuce and mayonnaise sandwiches on whole wheat bread, rhubarb sauce, coleslaw, tea, milk.
DINNER: Spanish omelet, parsley, new potatoes, buttered green beans, crusty bread, butter or fortified margarine, dandelion greens salad, devil's food chocolate cake, coffee, milk.

Jersey to Decide About State, Federal Rent Law

Trenton, N. J., March 31 (AP)—The New Jersey legislature was to decide today whether it wants a state or federal rent control law.

State controls are provided in a Driscoll administration measure ready for final approval by the senate. However, Majority Leader Samuel L. Bodine (R-Hunterdon) has indicated the legislators first wish to examine the federal act.

Although it appears clear that the state can provide for control under the federal bill, there was some uncertainty as to whether the legislature could substitute a complete set of its own regulations for the national rules.

Governor Driscoll has already declared he sees "no immediate prospect" for de-control in metropolitan areas of New Jersey.

The administration bill introduced by Sen. C. Wesley Armstrong (R-Mercer) would freeze rents at March 31 except where landlords can prove hardship, and permit the governor to de-control any area upon recommendation of county tax boards.

Also high on the legislative agenda were four anti-subversion bills approved unanimously by the assembly last Monday. Now before the senate, they would require future state employees, school teachers, and candidates for state office to sign loyalty oaths. The oaths would bar membership in organizations seeking unlawful overthrow of the United States government. Planning to adjourn April 8, both senate and assembly will have to dispose of a large number of bills if they are to follow that time-table. Current plans call for only Monday and Friday meetings next week in addition to today's session.

Will Scatter Ashes

White Plains, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—The ashes of Mrs. Marian C. Robinson, 71, will be scattered on the grave of her dog in the Hartsville Canine Cemetery. Mrs. Robinson, a wealthy reclusive, so directed in her will filed for probate yesterday. She was found dead last Friday in her Mount Kisco home amid rare jewelry, silver and antiques. The dog, recalled as a large German shepherd type, died in 1942. The will gave $400 to the cemetery for perpetual care of the dog's grave.

Port Ewen, March 31—The Port Ewen Teen-Age Club will not meet Friday night.

The Home Bureau unit met recently in the Town of Esopus auditorium. During the short business meeting the following were appointed to the nominating committee to report at the April meeting when the annual election will take place: Mrs. Alf Alanson Short, Mrs. Donald Tinnie and Mrs. LeRoy Myers. Schirick to Preside
At April Court Term

Justice Harry E. Schirick will preside at the April trial term of Supreme Court which will be convened Monday morning at 11 o'clock. The term was originally scheduled for Justice Francis Bergan and assigned to Justice

Schirick when Justice Bergan was elevated to the Appellate division. There are a hundred added cases on the calendar. At the January-February trial term 96 cases were disposed of, 16 by trial, 73 by settlements and seven were stricken off during the term. A grand and trial jury will be in attendance.

Cab Owners Say
Unions Bring In Strong Arm Men

New York, March 31 (AP)—Importation of union strong-arm men was charged today as owners of the city's biggest taxicab fleets declared they will run as many cabs as possible despite an impending strike.

A union linked to John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers reported its cry that "not a wheel will roll" after 4:30 a. m. (E.S.T.) tomorrow in the city's $100,000, 600-a-year taxi industry.

Union members have been ordered to "wipe all cabs off the street."

Two thousand policemen were held ready to step in if there is violence, Mayor William O'Dwyer says. He is determined that there shall be no more of the beatings and overrunning of cabs that marked strikes of past years.

Jack J. Jackman, spokesman for a large group of independent owner-drivers, charged the union had brought in men from southern mining towns. Jackman said these men would spearhead union flying squads and that if trouble resulted they would be to blame.

Leon Zwicker, director of the taxi union, denied that the men brought in are "goons"—strong-arm men.

Zwicker said 100 United Mine Workers organizers "from all over" are in the city helping the taxi union. "If there are any goons," he said, "they will be the operators' goons."

Principal issue in the strike—voted Tuesday by more than 5,000 union drivers and taxi garage workers—is a demand for immediate union recognition without going through a representation election under state labor laws.

Can't Go to N.L.R.B. The union—Local 35 of the Taxi Workers Organizing Committee—can not go to the National Labor Relations Board because officers of the parent United Mine Workers have not signed non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley law.

Leaders of the taxi union say the state election would take too long and give the employers a chance to "stall, divide and conquer." There is no other union in the field.

Wage increases, a closed shop and other benefits are sought by the union. The employers refuse to recognize the union until it proves through an election that it has a majority of the employees as members.

Leaders of five organizations of owner-drivers said their members generally would not operate at least for the first few days of the strike. A sixth group said its owners would continue to drive.

There are about 36,000 drivers mechanics and other workers in the industry. The city has 11,531 licensed cabs. Of these 6,800 are operated by 437 fleets, which vary in size from two to 1,600 cabs. The remaining 4,710 are owner-operated.

State Will Study Off-Track Bets

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—New York's tax conscious Legislature is studying a speculative eye-lining bill to study the feasibility of making legal off-track pari-mutuel betting that might net an estimated $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 annually.

Prodded by Nassau county Republicans, the Senate voted 50 to 5 late yesterday to approve creation of a nine-member commission to study the feasibility of making legal off-track betting.

The measure now awaits action by Governor Dewey.

The Nassau county pressure was directed by J. Russell Sprague, county G.O.P. leader, who has been a close political associate of the governor's for years.

Church groups have opposed similar measures in other years. Assemblyman Frank J. Becker, Nassau Republican who introduced the Assembly bill, said he and other supporters had taken no definite stand on "desirability" of off-track betting.

He added: "We don't know how much the state could collect in new tax revenue by taking a fair percentage of money wagered through machines. We do feel that the present system of illegal book-making, bribing of police officers and other evils is very bad."

Becker noted that "some persons think the state might collect as much as $200,000,000 a year in tax on pari-mutuel betting."

The commission, with a $50,000 appropriation, would report to the governor and the Legislature by Feb. 15, 1950.

Brooks Defeats Tellier to Repeat City Pocket Billiard Championship

200 Fans Watch Champ Register Seventh Straight in 125-89 Win

Dave Brooks calmly sliced the No. 3 ball into a side pocket for his 125th point and that was it, before nearly 200 fans last night at the Kaslich Parlor.

The smooth stroking, sharp-shooting youth had defeated the perennial challenger, Julius Tellier, 125-89, and had repeated as city pocket billiard champion.

This was not one of Brooks' greatest triumphs but it was his seventh straight in the 1949 tourney and gave him a perfect record for the meet.

Tellier, who has been runnerup more often than champion through his long career on the green baize, had several opportunities to snatch victory away from the defending champion but bad rolls, questionable position play and failure to make the clutch shots cost him a chance at the title.

Neither brilliant nor mediocre, Brooks was a calculating performer. He played conservatively, flashed a high grade safety technique that frequently forced Tellier to essay difficult shots the length of the table.

Brooks' greatest margin was 27 points when he led 58-31 and was never less than 20 balls. Twice when he appeared in danger of imminent rout, Tellier rallied to pull within ten balls but he never could pick up that extra rack.

The turning point in the two-hour-long struggle came when Tellier had reduced Brooks' lead from 58-31 to 59-50. The champion missed an easy corner shot and left eight balls on the table. Tellier executed a brilliant cut shot into a corner pocket but scratched.

Tellier Thrills Crowd
From there on out the tide went definitely in Brooks' favor. He picked up the eight balls, then another rack to forge ahead 88-58. After missing an easy long shot in a corner pocket, Tellier thrilled the gallery with two fine shots including a kiss-shot to come within 90-69.

Brooks stepped to the table after a series of safeties and found himself tightly sewed up with 11 ivories on the baize. He attempted a difficult combination shot in a corner pocket and failed. The shot making was superb for the remainder of the match with Brooks protecting his comfortable lead until he pocketed the ball he needed with a cut shot in the side.

Brooks stepped ahead 31-21 in the early phases of the match, with both cueists resorting to cleverly executed safeties and Brooks always a step ahead. The champion ran a rack and left Tellier with a long cut shot he missed.

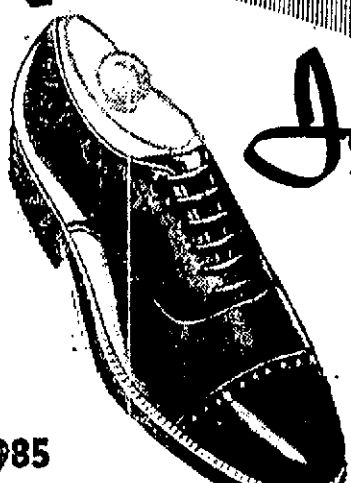

A neat kiss shot in the side pocket brought only grief to Tellier who scratched and Brooks promptly picked up five loose balls and then ran a rack to lead 52-25. Brooks' long safeties gave him the edge in the next rack with Tellier getting bad rolls. With Brooks in front 55-14, Tellier made his bid, reduced the lead to 59-50, and then dropped back to stay out of contention until the end of the match.

Both Hit 15
Both players had high runs of 15 balls. Brooks had the better equipment, his shot making was more consistent and his leaves and rolls consistently better than those of the veteran Tellier, who frequently hurt his own chances with faulty position play and misses on easy shots.

The tournament has three more matches remaining to decide runnerup positions.
Mac Forte and Frank Schilling are scheduled in Friday night's match at 7:30.

Training Camp News in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

San Antonio, Tex., March 31 (AP)—For the next two weeks Brooklyn pitchers will go as far as the other teams will let them, Manager Burt Shotton said today.

Lefty Joe Hatten drew today's assignment against the San Antonio club of the Texas League. Ralph Branca went all the way yesterday against Beaumont, an other Texas League outfit, as the Dodgers posted a 14-2 decision on a muddy field. He gave up four hits including a home run to Keith Thomas. He struck out one and walked six.

Hartung Impressive

Phoenix, Ariz., March 31 (AP)—New York Giants appear almost a sure thing to be named the year's most unpredictable major league team.

Trampled 22-9 by the lowly St. Louis Browns on Tuesday, the Polo Grounders vented their ire against the pennant-contending Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday to the tune of 11-4. The loss was the first in 11 games for the Pirates and only their fourth in 18 starts during the exhibition season.

Even more encouraging than their attack which included three home runs, was the Giants' pitching. Clint Hartung, who worked seven innings, was the winner.

Tampa, Fla., March 31 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds returned here for a four-game stand today after bowing to the New York Yankees 7-6 yesterday in 11 innings. Manager Bucky Walters named Walker Cress and Frank Fornoch to pitch against Washington today.

Walters still is undecided on an outfield. His latest plan was to use rookie Lloyd Merriman as regular centerfielder with Hank Sauer and Danny Litwhiler holding down left and right, respectively, against southpaw pitchers, and Johnny Wysocki and Frank Baumholtz working again at right-handers.

Phoenix, Ariz.—Maxie Docusen, 132, New Orleans, knocked out Pedro Ramirez, 129½, Mexico City, 4.

White Plains, N. Y.—Pat O'Connor, 165, County Cork, Ireland, outpointed Dom Yovella, 165½, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 8.

Phillies' 10th Man

Fleet' Richie Ashburn, prize rookie of last year and major's top base-stealer with 32, heads for first base as Braves' Phil Masi moves to field bunt in Clearwater, Fla. Umpire Art Gore, though impartial, has donned a pair of Phillies' pants due to slight accident to his blue jeans. Philadelphia Nationals won, 5-4.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

• Bagatelles:
The society editor described it as colossal and we're not in a position to disagree with her on matters of fashion, spring finery, mocha, bieve, tweeds, sunbacks, et al. The K.W.B.A. fashion show-revue Monday night was a superb promotion that reflects great credit on Mesdames Reta Frederick, Evelyn Dolson and the busy beavers of the K.W.B.A. We sincerely hope the girls realized a generous profit for their Scotch-and-Soda fund in Buffalo.

Mrs. Frederick, the brains behind the brawn of the promotion, was an impressive figure in one of those futuristic, jet-propelled hats that, somehow or other, escaped notice of the fashion commentators. You can throw in an assist for Roger Baer, who fingered the console of the organ for a mere hour and forty-five minutes without interruption in the first half of the show.

We learned at the show that early next month we'll have real spring. This is the time when everything burgeoins and girdles are hung out on the line. Incidentally, they should put girdles on runners . . . they spread so.

More specifically, it is the season when women buy hats. A man buys a hat because he needs one and it keeps the sun and rain out of his face. But women have several reasons. Some of them are: 1. Because the husband says he can't afford it; 2. It came from Paris; 3. Nobody else has one quite like it; 4. It's different; 5. She isn't feeling well; 6. Because . . .

• Flotsam and Jetsam:
The boys in the composing room quickly pointed out that the St. Louis Browns' 22-9 shellacking of the New York Giants doesn't count in the official N.Y.L. standings. Which reminds us that Frank Carmichael, the Broadway tonsorial wit, predicts the Yanks and Giants will finish first . . . in the second division. Former Kingston Recreation rosters were not surprised when they read that Kevin "Chuck" Connors, wartime first sacker, has developed into the showboat of Branch Rickey's farm system. Chuck was always a Fancy Dan and bobby sox idol around first base. He is a major league fielder but has too many batting weaknesses to stay up in the big show. The welcome mat rolls out for Ned Emerson, new sports columnist of the Middletown Times-Herald. Emerson succeeds C. C. "Shadow" Harrison who went the way of much Hudson valley sportswriting flesh and joined up with the trotting association. If Ned, an enthusiastic youngster, is as fearless and half as capable as "Shadow" he will do a bangup job.

• Of Men and Mice:
Maybe a woman would never wear slacks if she had handsight, but you couldn't say that about the stunning bathing suits that Scott's of Wall street furnished for one of the floats at the K.W.B.A. revue. The fabrics and females were delectable. . . . Addison Jones will be master of ceremonies at the annual combined bowling dinner of the Y.M.C.A. Mercantile and Church Federation Leagues on Monday, April 18, at the Y.M.C.A. Big Ed Weaver, confident to say that he is staying hard to gain admission to West Point. If Ed passed the recent entrance exam, he will transfer from Valley Forge to the Plains on July 1. . . . "It's a real big chance for me," the blonde giant said with a gleam in his eyes, "and I'm going to work hard to make the grade." Meanwhile Big Bob Ghear of Staunton Prep says his college plans are indefinite but he plans to continue sehgal. Either or both of these lads could be our greatest athletes since Tommy Maines at Syracuse.

• On Rolling a 3500 Series:
Rolling a near 3500 series is a simple matter if you have a pair of keglers over 750, nobody under 643 and with only two games below 200. That's how Al's Bowl-O-Drome of Lodi, N. J. which appears here Saturday night achieved their national record breaking blast in March.

Stan Niemic, one of the East's top keglers, who holds the current A.B.C. calendar year record of 805, shot 752 and Pete Kovelski had 783 in the No. 2 slot. You will notice that Jim Mulich was the "dog" with 634 and Al's missed the 1200 mark by single pins in the second and third sets.

Here is how the tremendous total was bowled:

Jamaica Track Is Ready for Opening Of Season Fr'day

New York, March 31 (AP)—Horse racing returns to New York tomorrow. If the balmy spring weather of the last few days holds, some 50,000 fans may welcome the sport back to Jamaica.

On opening day a year ago 33,564 turned out in rainy weather, but the more optimistic, having in mind the return of the daily double after three years, believe the crowd will be far greater tomorrow.

The $25,000 six furlong Pausonok Handicap, which has come to be regarded as a traditional opening day feature, provides the main interest.

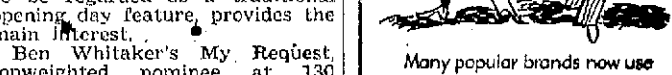

Ben Whitaker's My Request, topweighted nominee at 130 pounds, is expected to go to the post along with Mrs. Whitaker's crack filly, Miss Request. Trainer Jim Conway indicated yesterday he would saddle both of the Texas-owned four-year-olds.

Exeter Self, at 127 pounds, also is expected to start and may have a running mate in Energetic.

Other probables include Rippey and Vulcan's Forge, both recent arrivals from California; Blue Border, Bufuz, Royal Blood, Royal Governor, Miss Disco and Inseparable.

Eight races instead of seven as in other years, will be held at Jamaica this year with first post-time at 1:15 p. m. (E.S.T.).

Bowling

Reta Frederick, apparently recovered following her chores with the recent Kingston Women's Bowling Association fashion show, returned to the elite class in the pin-busting business Wednesday night at the Central Recs by leading the Friendship League keglers with a 550 triple.

Mrs. Frederick resumed her early season bowling form with a neat string of 176-197-177 for her top triple effort of 550.

Only two others made the "500" circle—Jo Smith fired 512 and Ada Markle bashed 505. "Sec" Smith cracked 177-150-185 while Ada posted two terrific games of 192 and 191 before dipping to 122 and thus spoiling a good-sized series.

Below the "500" were Margie Jansen with 193-496; Evelyn Dolson 178-489; Bea Barley 166-496; Helen Murphy 180-466; and Bea Aronsky 176-480.

Bea Barley rode to the top of the Colonial Women's League Wednesday night at the Central Recs on the strength of a powerful 578 triple with good games of 202-177-199.

Although scores dipped somewhat from last week's terrific session, there were a number of triples including Reta Frederick's 198-532; Mae Martello 192-194; 531; Dot Rawding 222-517; Helen Murphy 179-517; Evelyn Gross 179-516.

M. Amato hit 189-519; Mary Bonacci 189-510; Marie Kelekian 183-507 and Marge Jansen 200-507. Just missing the coveted "500" circle was Matilda Bruck who shot 499 while Doris Wolff posted a high 172 and a 493 score. Mary Wyant unloaded a neat 206 in her first game and settled for a 490 three-timer.

Throwing in a pair of 200 games—204 and 202—around a 157 middle effort, Bill Murray capped high scoring honors in the Church Federation Wednesday at the Y lanes.

Runnerup honors went to Art Crist who fired two 139 games and a 551 three-timer.

Other top efforts included Harold Smith with 199-532; Clarence "Sloot" Rowland 180-528; H. Pine 193-512; Harold Baiz 177-507; K. Kiser 181-505; and Garry Woodvine 208-484.

Freddie Barnum replaced Johnny Ferraro, Jr., as weekly leader in the Rip Van Winkle League sweepstakes with a record breaking 575. He pounded out scores of 220, 192 and 163 at the Bowler's Club.

Ferraro gained the runnerup slot with 140, 192 and 191. Other high scores were Ward Dunham and Gene Fitzgerald 455; Jim Moss 454; Joe Bosco 467; Mike Melnik 471; J. Quigley 454 and B. Ross 484.

Floyd Sycca waited until the final game last night at Ferraro's Bowldrome before uncorking the works. After shooting two even scores of 174 and 170, Sycca poured on a sizzling 262 finale to wind up with a 596 triple to pace the Catholic Athletic Association circuit.

Elsewhere in the loop, Johnny Zeck took the No. 2 position with a 561 blast on scores of 205-167-189.

Other good scores included Ed Murphy with 204-549; Frank Leski 189-540; Joe Hastings 209-527; Pete Talarzewski 182-523; Fred Ferraro 179-523; Joe Mannello 182-520; Joe Sweeney 186-513; Ed Norton 211-507; and J. Watzka 189-500.

DiMag Confident After Acid Test; Plays Six Frames

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 31

—Joe DiMaggio, the New York Yankees' $90,000 "if," smiled as he peeled off a sock in the clubhouse at Miller Huggins Field. The old toothy grin was back.

"I'm afraid I'll play another year. Every blanket blank in my mind," he said. "It looks like I'll have to work for my money."

DiMag had just passed his first test with flying colors. The tender right heel that threatened to end his great career gave him no trouble in a six-inning chore against Cincinnati. It was his first start.

"The pain is not completely gone," said Joe, "if it (the heel) improves a little more, I'll be very happy."

"After the first workout (March 1) I thought I'd have to hang up. Now I feel like I could play nine. I would have, too, but Casey Stengel said 'don't overdo it.'"

"Not until I get on base will I know for sure what I can do. But I don't expect any reaction. If it holds up, I'll be in good shape."

DiMaggio, the highest priced player in Yankee history at $90,000 per year, underwent an operation for removal of a spur from his right heel during the winter. Although it appeared completely healed, he overdid it in the first day of training.

After a hurried trip to Johns Hopkins for observation, DiMaggio was sidelined. Until yesterday he appeared in exhibitions only as a pinch hitter. He had not been too optimistic.

In yesterday's game he made two easy catches, almost without moving, felled a grounder and went hitless in three trips.

DiMaggio wears baseball shoes with a pad in the heel. When the season starts he expects to use golf spikes around the back of the heel to keep him from sliding on quick starts.

Exports Are Cleared

Shanghai, March 31 (AP)—The first large export shipment out of Tientsin since the Communists took over north China cleared for San Francisco Monday aboard the American ship China Victory. The shipment is 1,100 tons. Content of the cargo was not known here but Tientsin usually exports rugs, carpets, furs, wool and bristles.

There were 25 home runs hit with the bases filled in the American League in 1948, an increase of 10 over the previous season.

Syracuse University will be host on May 14 to the eastern sprint regatta. Some 30 crews are expected to compete.

Baby Ostriches Wanted

Bristol, Eng., March 31 (AP)—The Bristol zoo wants some baby ostriches, but Olive and Oscar Ostrich are against it. Olive lays her egg standing up, so the eggs break on the ground. If Oscar is given a suitable ostrich egg, he shakes his duty as an ostrich father and refuses to hatch it. Keeper George Hunt saw Olive fluff her feathers the other day. He rushed over and neatly caught a three-pound egg. He hasn't yet persuaded Oscar to sit on it, though.

Orangeburg Has Fresh Worry Over Cooperative Store

Orangeburg, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—The Federal Housing Authority stirred up a storm of protest today with an order to renegotiate business leases in the 1,500-family Shanks Village housing project for veterans.
G.I. College students and their families charged yesterday that the order might force out of business their $6,000-a-week cooperative supply store.
They announced a letter writing campaign directed at congressmen in the 48 states from which they came. They said their relatives also would be asked to petition Congress.
